The Works

Christopher Marlowe,1872 Being in Time to the Music David A. Ross,2007 Being in time to the music from the ground up is a work in phenomenology where this term is broadly defined comprehending Plato Heidegger Hegel and Marx The most direct referent is Hegel together with the theoretical revolution that he initiated with Phenomenology of Mind This text TM s more general purpose is to set the tone for a 21st communism based upon the idea of dancing with death assuming full responsibility for one TM's mortality and abandoning the self to love as the meaning of existence. This dance is choreographed through my conversations with the above mentioned writers. In conversing with them I aim to displace if not usurp them from the throne of honour which is nothing more than the authority borrowed from me. By this I do not intend to deny completely their other to me TM character. However they exist or even figure TM for me both in the sense of of count TM having importance as those that I read and by which I read myself. They have borrowed my authority namely my own potential to be an author. So reading them is to re assume that borrowed authority. The life of the reader to paraphrase Barthes begins with the death of the author. Workers of Wonders Byron L. Sherwin, 2004-10. Why do people follow a leader particularly a religious leader. And why given that Americans are still an overwhelmingly religious people is the clergy declining in influence. Byron Sherwin argues that what is missing is the perception that religious leaders today are capable of working wonders. Sherwin leads the reader through five periods of Jewish history the era of biblical prophets Jesus and first century Israel Babylonian rabbis of the third and fourth centuries the east European Hasidic Masters of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and twentieth century North African rabbis. In all cases the moral authority of the leaders came primarily from popular belief in their power to work wonders for the people. Sherwin applies history to the current situation. If the clergy is to be re empowered to reclaim leadership and authority as holy people they must reassert the ability to work wonders. This is a book that every member of the clergy and every religious leader should read ponder and take to heart.
