Nazi Propaganda for the Arab World Jeffrey Herf, 2009-11-30 Jeffrey Herf a leading scholar in the field offers the most extensive examination to date of Nazi propaganda activities targeting Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East during World War II and the Holocaust He draws extensively on previously unused and little known archival resources including the shocking transcriptions of the Axis Broadcasts in Arabic radio programs which convey a strongly anti Semitic message Herf explores the intellectual political and cultural context in which German and European radical anti Semitism was found to resonate with similar views rooted in a selective appropriation of the traditions of Islam Pro Nazi Arab exiles in wartime Berlin including Haj el Husseini and Rashid el Kilani collaborated with the Nazis in constructing their Middle East propaganda campaign By integrating the political and military history of the war in the Middle East with the intellectual and cultural dimensions of the propagandistic diffusion of Nazi ideology Herf offers the most thorough examination to date of this important chapter in the history of World War II Importantly he also shows how the anti Semitism promoted by the Nazi propaganda effort contributed to the anti Semitism exhibited by adherents of radical forms of Islam in the Middle East today

Cinema in the Arab World Ifdal Elsaket, Daniël Biltreyst, Philippe Meers, 2023-01-26 Cinema in the Arab world has been the subject of varied and rigorous studies but most have focused on films as text providing in depth analyses of plot style ideologies or examination of the biographies of prominent directors or actors This innovative new volume shifts the focus on Arab cinema off screen to examine the histories politics and conditions of distribution exhibition and cinema going in the Arab world Through broadening the frame of study beyond the screen the book widens understanding of the cinema not merely as a collection of films as texts but as a site of cultural and political contestation in the Arab world Divided into two sections and guided by interdisciplinary considerations the contributors examine historical and contemporary issues of Arab cinema in terms of the experience of movie going and filmmaking They examine the networks of distribution and exhibition as well as the contested and multiple meanings that the cinema embodied through diverse historical periods and geographical locations Part I focuses on new histories of Arab cinema in terms of film production distribution exhibition and audience s experiences of cinema going Part II deals with more recent issues within scholarship on Arab cinema such as issues of politics economics ideologies as well as issues related to Arab movies international circulation and screenings at festivals Together the chapters enrich our understanding of the cinema in the Arab world showing how deeply embedded it is within its social political and economic contexts

Banking and Financial Systems in the Arab World P. Molyneux, M. Iqbal, 2016-01-13 This book provides state of the art analysis of banking and financial systems in the Arab world The early chapters of the text present an overview of Arab economies linking banking and financial sector trends in the Arab world over the last twenty years The rest of the text examines in detail the financial systems of the major Arab countries focusing on banking sector and capital market developments This text will be the first to provide a rigorous analytical evaluation of

Arab Criminology Nabil Ouassini, Anwar Ouassini, 2023-03-03

The objective of Arab Criminology is to establish a criminological subfield called Arab Criminology The ever evolving field of criminology has advanced in the past decade yet many impediments remain Unlike criminology in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania which is based merely on geopolitical constructs the Arab world has unique commonalities that do not exist in the other established subfields of criminology The Arab world has largely remained in criminology s periphery despite the region s considerable importance to current international affairs In response this book explores two main questions Why should we and how do we establish a subfield in Arab criminology The authors examine the state of criminology in the Arab world define its parameters and present four components that bond and distinguish Arab criminology from other criminological area studies They then identify the requirements for establishing Arab criminology and detail how local regional and international researchers can collaborate develop and expand the subfield Arab criminology will challenge some of the recurrent Orientalist and Islamophobic tropes in Northern criminology and progress the discipline of criminology to reflect a more diverse focus that embraces regions from the Global South Presenting compelling arguments and examples that support the establishment of this subfield Arab Criminology will be of great interest to scholars of criminology criminal justice legal studies and Middle Eastern North African studies particularly those working on Southern criminology comparative criminology international criminal justice systems and Arab studies     Atlas of the Arab World and the Middle East Djambatan (Firm : Amsterdam, Netherlands),1960     Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C.
