Animal-human Relationships in Medieval Iceland Harriet J. Evans Tang, 2022 A multidisciplinary investigation of the links between people and animals in reality and representation Domestic animals played a range of roles in the imaginative world of medieval Icelanders from partners in settlement and household allies to violent offenders foster kin and surrogate wives they were vital and effective members of the multispecies communities established from the ninth century onwards This book examines the domestic animals of early Iceland in their physical and textual contexts through detailed analysis of the spaces and places of the Icelandic farm and farming landscape and textual sources such as The Book of Settlements the earliest Icelandic laws and various episodes from the Sagas and Tales of Icelanders Taking a multidisciplinary approach to animal human relationships it sees animals not solely as symbols metaphors or objects but as subjects in affective relationships with their human co settlers who become the focus of intense exploration delight anxiety and condemnation in later textual narratives By inviting readers to question how these sources form embrace or reject animal human relationships it provides a resource for understanding these archaeological sites and textual narratives differently as products of multispecies communities in which animals and humans lived worked and died together ation in later textual narratives By inviting readers to question how these sources form embrace or reject animal human relationships it provides a resource for understanding these archaeological sites and textual narratives differently as products of multispecies communities in which animals and humans lived worked and died together ation in later textual narratives By inviting readers to question how these sources form embrace or reject animal human relationships it provides a resource for understanding these archaeological sites and textual narratives differently as products of multispecies communities in which animals and humans lived worked and died together

The German Shepherd Dog In Word And Picture V. Stephanitz, 2011-03-25 Originally published in Germany in 1923 The German Shepherd Dog in Word and Picture is the English translation of what is probably the most important book ever published on this popular breed This volume is highly recommended for owners and breeders alike and it would make for a fantastic addition to collections of allied literature Contents include The Shepherd dog and Herdsman's dog their Origin and Relationship The Nature and Service of the Shepherd Dog Breeding Rearing Judging Training Kennels etc Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author

Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D. Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus

lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind's greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog's contributions to our lives and our world
