Buried in Europe to Visit the Graves United States. Congress. House. Committee on Military Affairs,1924 Religious Interactions in Europe and the Mediterranean World Katsumi Fukasawa,Benjamin J. Kaplan,Pierre-Yves

Beaurepaire,2017-07-14 The religious histories of Christian and Muslim countries in Europe and Western Asia are often treated in isolation from one another This can lead to a limited and simplistic understanding of the international and interreligious interactions currently taking place This edited collection brings these national and religious narratives into conversation with each other helping readers to formulate a more sophisticated comprehension of the social and cultural factors involved in the tolerance and intolerance that has taken place in these areas and continues today Part One of this volume examines the history of relations between people of different Christian confessions in western and central Europe Part Two then looks at the relations between Western and Eastern Orthodox Christianity Islam and Judaism in the vast area that extends around the Mediterranean from the Iberian Peninsula to western Asia Each Part ends with a Conclusion that considers the wider implications of the preceding essays and points the way toward future research Bringing together scholars from Asia the Middle East Europe and America this volume embodies an international collaboration of unusual range Its comparative approach will be of interest to scholars of Religion and History particularly those with an emphasis on interreligious relations and religious tolerance Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant,2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage
