The Changing Face of Calcutta ,2025      The Changing World of Caste and Hierarchy in Bengal Sudarshana Bhaumik,2022-08-26 This book challenges the prevalent assumptions of caste hierarchy and social mobility in pre colonial and colonial Bengal It studies the writings of colonial ethnographers Orientalist scholars Christian missionaries and pre colonial literary texts like the Mangalkavyas to show how the concept of caste emerged and argues that the jati order in Bengal was far from being a rigidly reified structure but one which had room for spatial and social mobility The volume highlights the processes through which popular myths and beliefs of the lower caste orders of Bengal were Sanskritized It delineates the linkages between sedantized peasant culture and the emergence of new agricultural castes in colonial Bengal Moreover the author discusses a wide spectrum of issues like marginality and hierarchy the spread of Brahmanical hegemony the creation of deities and the process of Sanskritization popular Saivism the cult of Manasa in Bengal and the revolt of 1857 and the caste question Rich in archival sources this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of colonial history Indian history political sociology caste studies exclusion studies cultural studies social history cultural history and South Asian studies especially those interested in undivided Bengal      The Changing Faces of Ireland Merike

Darmody,Naomi Tyrrell,Steve Song,2011-10-22 Before the economic boom of the 1990s Ireland was known as a nation of emigrants The past fifteen years however have seen the transformation of Ireland from a country of net emigration to one of net immigration on a scale and at a pace unprecedented in comparative context As a result Irish society has become more diverse in terms of nationality language ethnicity and religious affiliation and these changes are now clearly reflected in the composition of both primary and secondary schools presenting these with challenges as well as opportunities Despite the increased number of ethnically diverse immigrant children and young people in the Ireland currently there is a paucity of information about aspects of their lives in Ireland This book is aimed at contributing to this gap in knowledge This edited collection will be of interest to researchers in the fields of migration studies childhood studies education studies human geography sociology applied social studies social work health studies and psychology It will also be a useful resource to educators social workers youth workers and community members working with or preparing to work with children with immigrant and ethnic minority backgrounds in Ireland      The Changing Face of Korean Cinema Brian Yecies,Aegyung

Shim,2015-12-22 The rapid development of Korean cinema during the decades of the 1960s and 2000s reveals a dynamic cinematic history which runs parallel to the nation s political social economic and cultural transformation during these formative periods This book examines the ways in which South Korean cinema has undergone a transformation from an antiquated local industry in the 1960s into a thriving international cinema in the 21st century It investigates the circumstances that allowed these two eras to emerge as creative watersheds and demonstrates the forces behind Korea s positioning of itself as an important contributor to regional and global culture and especially its interplay with Japan Greater

China and the United States Beginning with an explanation of the understudied operations of the film industry during its 1960s take off it then offers insight into the challenges that producers directors and policy makers faced in the 1970s and 1980s during the most volatile part of Park Chung hee s authoritarian rule and the subsequent Chun Doo hwan military government It moves on to explore the film industry s professionalization in the 1990s and subsequent international expansion in the 2000s In doing so it explores the nexus and tensions between film policy producing directing genre and the internationalization of Korean cinema over half a century By highlighting the recent transnational turn in national cinemas this book underscores the impact of developments pioneered by Korean cinema on the transformation of Planet Hallyuwood It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of Korean Studies and Film Studies The Changing Face of Portrait Photography ,2011-10-18 A richly illustrated volume examines the portrait work of Dorothea Lange Richard Avedon Robert Weingarten George K Warren Julia Margaret Cameron the Barr Wright Studio Gertrude Kasebier Nickolas Muray Henry Horenstein and Lauren Greenfield The Changing Face of Portrait Photography explores the power of the portrait and the role it plays in our personal and national identities The Changing Face of Portrait Photography explores ten groups of portraits selected from within the Smithsonian National Museum of American History s Photographic History Collection The selections represent work by specific photographers with diverse relationships to portraiture and through their sampling take a focused look at changing convention theory and technologies The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess Phyllis K. Herman,Deepak Shimkhada,2009-03-26 The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess Goddess Traditions of Asia contains essays written by established scholars in the field that trace the multiplicity of Asian goddesses their continuities discontinuities and importance as symbols of wisdom power transformation compassion destruction and creation The essays demonstrate that while treatments of the goddess may vary regionally culturally and historically it is possible to note some consistencies in the overall picture of the goddess in Asia The book provides a comprehensive treatment of the goddess culminating in the selections that draw from research on Indian Nepali Chinese Japanese and Vietnamese traditions seldom found in other works of similar subject The volume will be useful for students in religious studies gender studies Asian studies and women s studies With the intent of making the volume truly broad in scope an effort has been made to include works written by art historians sociologists anthropologists and religious studies scholars Culture cannot be separated from religion they are intertwined as an organic whole and variations manifest themselves in the rituals and daily lives of the people In this sense all the essays are interconnected the goddess manifests in many forms and appeals to differing aspects of a particular culture as a paradigm of the divine feminine Dancing with the River Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt,Gopa Samanta,2013-06-25 With this book Kuntala Lahiri Dutt and Gopa Samanta offer an intimate glimpse into the microcosmic world of hybrid landscapes Focusing on chars the part land part water low lying sandy masses that exist within the riverbeds in the floodplains of lower Bengal the authors show how both as real life examples and as metaphors chars straddle the conventional categories of land and water and how people who live on them fluctuate between legitimacy and illegitimacy The result a study of human habitation in the nebulous space between land and water charts a new way of thinking about land people and people s ways of life Journal of the Asiatic Society ,1998 Changing Faces of Women in Indian Writing in English M.
