The Changing Faces Of Rural Spain:

The Changing Faces of Rural Spain Joseph B. Aceves, William A. Douglass, 1976 The Changing Faces of Rural Spain Joseph Aceves, William A. Douglass, 1976 Europe's Green Ring Leo Granberg, Imre Kovách, 2017-07-05 Around the fringe of Europe lies a green ring of countries which have followed different pathways into modernity from the industrial core of the continent and have until recently been characterized by a strong agrarian presence in their politics economy and culture This book brings together case studies from both the post socialist countries and EU member states which make up the green ring to compare experiences of rural and agricultural groups It provides a fascinating opportunity to identify similarities and contrasts in the ways in which these countries have managed their rural areas when faced with the challenges set by industrialization political integration and globalization The book focuses on agrarian transformation as de and sometimes re peasantization referring to the changing economic social cultural and political positions of farmers and food production workers It also problematizes the standard rural models and opens up discussion of the problems these models pose for the farmers of the green ring countries The Presence of the Past in a Spanish Village Ruth Behar, 2014-07-14 This study of a northern Spanish community shows how the residents of Santa Mar a del Monte have acted together at critical times to ensure the survival of their traditional forms of social organization The survival of these forms has allowed the villagers in turn to weather demographic political and economic crises over the centuries Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 History and Power in the Study of Law June Starr, Jane Fishburne Collier, 1989 A conference called Ethno historical Models and the Evolution of Law was held in Milan and at Bellagio Lake Como Italy from August 10 to August 18 1985 The Wenner Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research and the Rockefeller Foundation provided funding The conference was organized by June Starr of the Department of Anthropology State University of New York at Stony Brook and Jane F Collier of the Department of Anthropology Stanford University The goal was to compare case studies of legal change in particular societies using historical frameworks in order to search for shared questions and methodologies to direct future research The twenty anthropologists sociologists and law professors from North America and Europe who attended devoted five half days to discussing seventeen previously circulated papers and four half days to a general consideration of conference issues In their discussions participants focused on the models they were using to analyze the development change decay integration and articulation of legal systems within specific social units Professors Elizabeth Colson and William Twining served as commentators Jessica Kuper was editorial adviser and Longina Jakubowska and

Richard Maddox were rapporteurs From Duty to Desire Jane Fishburne Collier,2020-07-21 In the 1980s Jane Collier revisited a village in Andalusia where she and others had conducted fieldwork twenty years earlier to investigate changes in family relationships and to explore the larger question of the development of a modern subjectivity among the people Whereas the villagers she met in the sixties stressed the importance of meeting social obligations the people she interviewed more recently emphasized the need to think for oneself status concerns in choosing a spouse had apparently been replaced by romantic love patriarchal authority by partnership marriages parental demands for obedience by hopes of earning children's affection mourners respect for the dead by personal expressions of grief In each of these areas the author detected a modern concern for producing oneself which emerged with changes in how villagers experienced social inequality Collier notes that when inheritance appeared to determine social status villagers protected family reputations and properties by demonstrating concern for what others might say Once villagers began participating in the national job market where individual achievement appeared to determine a worker's income they focused on realizing their inner abilities and productive capacities Sensitivity to one's feelings thoughts and aptitudes along with rational assessments of the costs and benefits entailed in choosing how to use them testified to a person's unceasing efforts to realize inner potentials The author also traces shifts in the meaning of tradition suggesting that although modern people cannot be traditional they must have traditions in order to produce themselves Ibss: Anthropology: 1978 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1990-12-31 First published in 1981 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an information company Political Science, Government, and Public Policy Series. Annual Supplement Universal Reference System,1972

Geografisch tijdschrift Koninklijk Nederlands Aardrijkskundig Genootschap,1986 From Franco to Freedom Miguel Angel Ruiz Carnicer,2018-11-01 This book brings together recent research by a group of specialists in history and sociology to provide a new reading of the late Franco dictatorship especially in relation to its political culture The authors focus on the election of local trade union and national representatives the work of the first Spanish sociologists the struggle over administrative reform the role of the media and the intellectuals as well as the evolution of the dictatorship's political class and its response to the regime's decline Not only are the politics of the late dictatorship scrutinised but also the mechanisms that were deployed to control the fast changing society of the 1960s and 1970s In examining the late Franco period the contributors do not believe that it contained the seeds of Spain's later democratisation but maintain that certain sectorial regime initiatives electoral and political changes an evolving discourse and an interest in political processes outside Spain made many Spaniards aware of the dictatorship's contradictions and limitations thereby encouraging its subsequent political and social evolution This transformation is compared with the latter stages of the parallel dictatorship in Portugal The great majority of Spaniards felt that the embrace of democratic freedoms and integration into the European Community was the only way forward during the Transition But the shift from dictatorship to democracy from the 1960s onwards in Spain needs to be understood in relation to the multitude of political and social changes that took place despite the opposition of Franco and the bunker mentality of the regime These changes manifested in a complex interaction between internal and external factors which eventually resulted in the transformation of Spanish society itself Spain Eric Solsten,Sandra W. Meditz,1990 2d edition Edited by Eric Solsten and Sandra W Meditz Prepared by Library of Congress Federal Research Division Research completed Dec 1988 Describes and analyzes the history politics economics and national security systems of Spain Newsletter of the Society for Spanish and Portuguese Historical Studies ,1975 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1983 The Importance of Population Structure and Birth Order Specific Selection in Relation to the Maintenance and Distribution of the Rhesus Blood Group Polymorphism in Human Populations Harold Frederick Turnbull,1981
