The Lake District A Landscape History:

The Lake District William Harold Pearsall, Winifred Pennington, 1973 Rocks and Rain, Reason and Romance David Howe, 2019-03-28 David Howe tells the story of the Lake District England's most dramatic landscape Home to vistas of stunning beauty and a rich heritage it is an area of England that fascinates inspires and has bewitched David for a lifetime With passion and an endless curiosity he reveals how half a billion years of shifting ice violent volcanoes and of course falling rain have shaped the lakes and fells that have fired the imaginations of the great sons and daughters of the area the poets and the scientists He shows that Lakeland is a seamless web where lives and landscape weave together where the ancient countryside has created a unique local history of farming and mining of tightknit communities of a resilient and proud people The Lake District is a place of rocks and rain reason and romance wonder and curiosity And this book celebrates it all the very character of Cumbria The Lake District William Harold Pearsall, 1977 The Making of a Cultural Landscape Mr Jason Wood, Professor John K Walton, 2013-11-28 For centuries the English Lake District has been renowned as an important cultural sacred and literary landscape It is therefore surprising that there has so far been no in depth critical examination of the Lake District from a tourism and heritage perspective Bringing together leading writers from a wide range of disciplines this book explores the tourism history and heritage of the Lake District and its construction as a cultural landscape from the mid eighteenth century to the present day It critically analyses the relationships between history heritage landscape culture and policy that underlie the activities of the National Park Cumbria Tourism and the proposals to recognise the Lake District as a UNESCO World Heritage Site It examines all aspects of the Lake District's history and identity brings the story up to date and looks at current issues in conservation policy and tourism marketing In doing so it not only provides a unique and valuable analysis of this region but offers insights into the history of cultural and heritage tourism in Britain and beyond

A History of Man in the Lake District William Rollinson, 1967 The New Naturalists (Collins New Naturalist Library, Book 82) Peter Marren, 2010-08-19 A history of the most successful significant and long running natural history series in the world History and Landscape Lydia Greeves, 2004 This is a guide to all the National Trust properties It showcases recent acquisitions by the Trust such as the Gothic wonder of Tyntesfield John Lennon's childhood home Mendips and William Morris Arts and Crafts Red House The properties are arranged alphabetically for easy reference Lake District Mountain Landforms Peter Wilson, 2010 Written with fell walkers and other countryside enthusiasts in mind this thoroughly engaging and absorbing book shows that there is much more to the Lake District than simply stanes and watter Have you ever wondered why Scafell is different from Skiddaw or why the east side of Helvellyn is different from the west side or why Ullswater is different from Windermere or why the summit of Helm Crag is well a bit craggy If so this book will provide some answers together with a deeper understanding of how the fell country acquired its special characteristics The physical landscape of the Lake District acts like a giant magnet attracting several million visitors every year to the fell country From John Constable to Alfred Wainwright via William Wordsworth and Beatrix Potter the Lake District has inspired visitors and residents alike Although often romanticised in words and pictures as static and enduring the mountains of the Lake District are dynamic elements of nature undergoing constant change Media interest in climate change storms floods and landslides has done much to increase the public's perception of a dynamic rather than a static physical landscape
