The Politics Of Old Age In Europe:

The Politics of Old Age in Europe Alan Walker, Gerhard Naeye, 1999 This collection of essays by leading authorities examines the new politics of old age from the perspectives of individual countries and the European Union as a whole

The politics of old age Martha Doyle, 2015-02-01 The politics of old age in the twenty first century is contentious encompassing ideological debates about the rights and welfare entitlements of individuals in later life An important aspect is the manner in which older people and their representative groups are given the opportunity to articulate their interests in the policy making process Drawing upon key literature in political science social gerontology and cultural sociology The politics of old age explores the relationship between ageing politics and representation It reveals the complexity of older people's representation and how the power the organisations exercise their legitimacy and existence remain highly contingent on government policy design political opportunity structures and the prevailing cultural and socioeconomic milieu This book is essential reading for policymakers and organisations interested in ageing policy and the political process and for students of ageing social policy and political sociology

The Political Participation of Older People in Europe A. Goerres, 2009-03-26 The first comparative analysis of the political behaviour of older people using evidence from 20 European democracies In contrast to younger people across European societies older people do not behave uniformly For political participation in later life it matters where and when individuals have grown up and in which country they become old

New Dynamics in Old Age Hans-Werner Wahl, Clemens Tesch-Romer, Dr. Andreas Hoff, Jon Hendricks, 2017-07-05 Based on the hypothesis that the new dynamics of old age is best observed in a range of everyday aging contexts that have been undergoing major change since the second half of the 20th century This book is aimed at scholarly community of gerontology in a variety of disciplines sociology psychology demography epidemiology and others

Global Ageing in the Twenty-First Century Zachary Zimmer, 2016-04-22 Population ageing a growth in the proportion of a population that is in older age is now occurring in every region and nearly every country of the world Indeed the growth of older populations is among the important global phenomena of the twenty first century It poses both opportunities and challenges for societies and policy makers but these are far from uniform worldwide Dynamic factors are at work impacting on how ageing will influence people places and policies and there are large variations in the rate and timing of population ageing across countries owing to differing social health and economic circumstances and a variety of policy options from which to choose Given this variation in the context of global ageing as a backdrop this edited book focuses on three overarching themes that are among the most critical to understand if societies are to age successfully in the twenty first century and beyond Healthy ageing and health care the ageing workforce retirement and the provision of pensions shifting intergenerational relations These three themes are cross cut by other dimensions that are intertwined with the dynamic processes of ageing such as immigration emigration contrasting policy regimes and global and national economic forces This ground breaking book will be of interest to all scholars students and policy makers working within this area of study The Making of Ageing Policy Rune Ervik,Tord Skogedal Lindén,2013-01-01 This innovative book provides insightful analyses and critique of policy ideas and practices regarding the challenges and opportunities facing ageing European societies Through pertinent case study examples it elucidates the ideological and institutional factors that underlie policy responses in different European societies It demonstrates the pivotal role of ideas and of international organisations in shaping the policy and practice landscape and driving through key policy reforms in Europe This edited book provides an invaluable resource for policy makers researchers and scholars interested in ageing policy and the political process Sara Arber University of Surrey UK Demographic changes transform societies and challenge existing institutional solutions and policies The need for policies addressing these challenges has increasingly been put on the agenda The Making of Ageing Policy analyzes these innovative policy ideas and practices at both the international and the national level The book provides insights into the value basis and justifications of ageing policies the potential for conflict and how policy ideas are embedded in institutional defense and advocacy for institutional change and reform In terms of policy ideas the economically focused productive ageing dominates but the book finds instances where the broader active ageing approach has gained a hold in policymaking Ageing policy reforms within pensions and labour market policy include measures to make people extend their working life In long term care reforms abound and implies changes in the responsibility of financing and provision but the patterns across countries differ substantially The authors provide normative analysis of ageing policy ideas divulge political conflicts and consensus on ageing policy and contribute by describing and analyzing the changing institutional landscape of ageing politics and policies throughout Europe It will prove insightful for academics and researchers in the field but it will also appeal to practitioners who are increasingly dealing with demographic challenges across a wide number of policy sectors in their daily affairs
