The Positive Thinkers From Mary Baker Eddy To Ronald Reagan:

The Positive Thinkers Donald B. Meyer,1988 Uitstelgedrag Piers Steel,2011-11-15 Waarom blijven we voor de buis zitten terwijl we eigenlijk naar bed moeten Waarom surfen we op internet in plaats van een deadline te halen Waarom puilt de wasmand altijd uit en staat het aanrecht steeds vol Waarom begint een dieet altijd morgen En dat allemaal terwijl we dondersgoed weten dat we er niet beter van worden Professor Piers Steel zelf een notoire uitsteller doet al ruim tien jaar onderzoek naar uitstelgedrag Met humor ontrastiert hij de mythes over dit verschijnsel bijvoorbeeld dat het aan iemands perfectionisme zou liggen Helder en onderbouwd verklaart hij ons uitstellen waarbij hij vooral het verband legt met impulsiviteit Het slechte nieuws van Steel is dat uitstelgedrag een diepgewortelde gewoonte is waar 95 procent van de bevolking aan lijdt Het goede nieuws is dat we er ook van af kunnen komen Hiervoor geeft Steel een rijk arsenaal aan beproefde technieken Do Real Men Pray? Charles H. Lippy,Jeffrey B. Leak,2005 White male spirituality and the Christian man The dutiful patriarch The gentleman entrepreneur The courageous adventurer The efficient businessman The positive thinker The faithful leader Male spirituality in white Protestant America Entrepreneurs and Capitalism since Luther Ivan Light,Léo-Paul Dana,2020-08-20 In Entrepreneurs and Capitalism since Luther Rediscovering the Moral Economy Ivan Light and Léo-Paul Dana study the history of business capitalism and entrepreneurship to examine the values of social and cultural capital Six chapters evaluate case studies that illustrate contrasting relationships between social networks vocational culture and entrepreneurship Light and Dana argue that in capitalism's early stages cultural capital is scarcer than social capital and therefore more crucial for business owners Conversely when capitalism is well established social capital is scarcer than cultural capital and becomes more crucial Light and Dana then trace moral legitimations of capitalism from the Reformation to the Enlightenment the Gilded Age and finally to Joseph Schumpeter whose concept of creative destruction freed elite entrepreneurs from moral restraints that encumber small business owners After examining the availability of social and cultural capital in the contemporary United States Light and Dana show that business owners social capital enforces conventional morality in markets facilitating commerce and legitimating small businesses the old fashioned way As their networks become more isolated elite entrepreneurs must claim and ultimately deliver successful results to earn public toleration of immoral or predatory conduct American Women Writers Taryn Benbow-Pfalzgraf,2000 These volumes present essays offering critical biographical and bibliographical information on each writer The Greenwood guide to American popular culture M. Protestantism, Capitalism, and Nature in America Mark Stoll, 1997 Environmentalists have often blamed Protestantism for justifying the human exploitation of nature but the author of this cultural history argues that in America hard boiled industrialists and passionate environmentalists sprang from the same Protestant root Protestant Christianity Calvinism especially both helped industrialists like James J Hill rationalise their utilisation of nature for economic profit and led environmental advocates like John Muir to call for the preservation of unspoiled wilderness Biographical vignettes examine American thinkers industrialists and environmentalists Benjamin Franklin Joseph Smith William Gilpin Leland Stanford Gifford Pinchot Aldo Leopold and others whose lives show the development of ideas and attitudes that have profoundly shaped Americans use of and respect for nature The final chapter looks at several contemporary figures James Watt Annie Dillard and Dave Foreman whose careers exemplify the recent Protestant thought and behaviour and their impact on the environment

American Bohemias, 1858-1912 Joanna Dale Levin, 2001 Unfaithful Angels Harry Specht, Mark E. Courtney, 1994 An examination of the fall of social work from its original mission to aid and serve the underprivileged shows how a national faith in individualistic solutions to social problems led social workers to leave social services Happiness and the Limits of Satisfaction Deal Wyatt Hudson, 1996 In classical and medieval times happiness was defined as well being a notion that included moral goodness Today happiness is most often defined as well feeling and identified with subjective states such as satisfaction and peace of mind Deal Hudson argues that the prevailing view is dangerous in politics as well as ethics creating individuals with no other sense of obligation than finding personal satisfaction regardless of the moral and spiritual cost to themselves and others Hudson calls for a return to the classical tradition no one should be called happy who cannot also be called morally good However a contemporary version of happiness should also go beyond the classical notion by making room in the happy life for suffering and passion Using the history of the idea of happiness as a backdrop to a critique of contemporary views Hudson examines happiness from philosophical religious psychological sociological literary and political points of view for example he shows how the tension between the two definitions of happiness is at the heart of the Declaration of Independence The result is an excellent overview of the history of an idea as well as a compelling argument for moral and political change in our time
