Canadian Journal of Counselling, 2000 Essentials of Chemical Dependency Counseling Gary Lawson, Ann W. Lawson, P. Clayton Rivers, 1996 This widely used textbook for chemical dependency counseling programs has been updated and thoroughly revised. New chapters cover after care and relapse prevention as well as ethics and legal issues. The book retains its popular practical features and tools on intake case planning, paperwork, supervision and referrals. Group and family counseling are introduced. An instructor's manual is now available to accompany the text. Career Counseling Vernon G. Zunker, 2002 This highly successful book has been called the most comprehensive book on the market providing readers with needed career theory as well as practical techniques and examples. Through the author's clear writing style, case examples, tables and exercises, readers develop a solid understanding of the theoretical models of career counseling and are thoroughly exposed to the practical information on how to effectively counsel clients about career issues.

The Rehabilitation Model of Substance Abuse Counseling John J. Benshoff, Timothy P. Janikowski, 1999 This text provides readers with practical skills and treatment strategies and is unique in its conceptualization of substance abuse treatment from a rehabilitation perspective and its perspective of substance abuse as a disability. The authors treat substance abuse as a complex problem with a diverse etiological basis stressing that recovery is a process that is holistic, individualized and functionally based.

Culturally Competent Practice Rowena Fong, Sharlene Maeda Furuto, 2001 This comprehensive social work book discusses how to work with clients of four major ethnic backgrounds: African American, Latino, Hispanic American, First Nations People and Asians Pacific Islanders. The book shows readers how to approach helping by first understanding the world view of each of these groups. Each chapter includes indigenous strategies and/or a biculturalization approach to assessments, interventions and evaluations. Levels of practice include individuals, families, organizations and communities. Each chapter includes case vignettes that illustrate the helping strategies. For social workers and social work students interested in culturally competent social work practice or diversity practice.
