century A century later Caldecote was granted to the abbots of the Benedictine monastery in St Albans at a time when there were seventeen householders Early in the second half of the 14th century the estate and demesne were subdivided into six farms each complete with a hall house and two or more barns Following the dissolution of the monastery in 1539 the manor was again held by an absentee lord and the farms continued to prosper However the late 16th and early 17th centuries for which there are several surviving wills and inventories saw their gradual abandonment After the desertion of Caldecote Marish in 1698 Caldecote was farmed as a single unit until 1970 when the estate was attached to that adjoining the manor of Newnham Of particular importance from Caldecote is the archaeological evidence for medieval peasant structures the development of the later medieval domestic plan and the structural tra
