Prison in Iran Nahid Rahimipour Anaraki, 2020-11-06 This book offers a unique look into prisons in Iran and the lives of the prisoners and their families It provides an overview of the history of Iranian prisons depicts the sub culture in contemporary Iranian prisons and highlights the forms that gender discrimination takes behind the prison walls The book draws on the voices of 90 men and women who have been imprisoned in Iran interviewed in 2012 and 2017 across various parts of the Islamic Republic of Iran It presents a different approach to the one proposed by Michel Foucault in Discipline and Punish because the author argues that Iran never experienced the age of sobriety in punishment and a slackening of the hold on the body Whilst penal severity in Iran has reduced its scope has now extended beyond prisoners to their families regardless of their age and gender In Iran penalties still target the body but now also affect the bodies of the entire prisoner's family It is not just prisoners who suffer from the lack of food clothes spaces for sleeping health services legal services safety and threats of physical violence and abuse but also their families The book highlights the costs of mothers incarceration for their children It argues that as long as punishment remains the dominant discourse of the penal system the minds and bodies of anyone related to incarcerated offenders will remain under tremendous strain This unique book explores the nature of these systems in a deeply under covered nation to expand understandings of prisons in the non Western world

The Politics of Writing in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2000-05-01 Emerging in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries as a secular activity Persian literature acquired its own modernity by redefining past aesthetic practices of identity and history By analyzing selected work of major pre and post revolutionary literary figures Talattof shows how Persian literary history has not been an integrated continuum but a series of distinct episodic movements shaped by shifting ideologies Drawing on western concepts modern Persian literature has responded to changing social and political conditions through complex strategies of metaphorical and allegorical representations that both construct and denounce cultural continuities The book provides a unique contribution in that it draws on texts that demonstrate close affinity to such diverse ideologies as modernism Marxism feminism and Islam Each ideological standard has influenced the form characterization and figurative language of literary texts as well as setting the criteria for literary criticism and determining which issues are to be the focus of literary journals

Global 1979 Arang Keshavarzian, Ali Mirsepassi, 2021-07-15 The Iranian revolution of 1979 not only had an impact on regional and international affairs but was made possible by the world and time in which it unfolded This multi disciplinary volume presents this revolution within its transnational and global contexts Moving deftly from the personal to the global and from the provincial to the national it draws attention to the multiplicity of spaces of the revolution such as streets schools prisons personal lives and histories such as the Cold War and Global 1960s and 70s With a broad range of approaches Global 1979 conceives of the Iranian Revolution not as exceptional or anachronistic but as an uprising constituted by multiple interwoven geographies and histories which disrupt static and bounded notions of the local national regional and global

Torture And Modernity Darius M Rejali, 1994 What does the practice of torture presuppose about human beings and human society How does one explain a society in which institutional torture persists despite massive changes in government and class structure What indeed are the social foundations of modern torture In Culture and Modernity Darius M Rejali investigates torture in Iran in order to understand and critically reconsider the politics and psychology of modern torture In a world in which one out of every three governments uses torture Rejali points to a common past one shared by Iranians and non Iranians alike that supports this practice My aim Rejali writes is to use the study of torture and of punishment more generally to unearth deep and important assumptions about society history politics and the good life that I believe underpin the life of a torturer Exploring the four principle explanations of modern torture those offered by human rights activists modernization theorists state terrorist theorists such as Noam Chomsky and post structuralists especially Michel Foucault Rejali asks Do the accounts of political violence that we have developed over the past century have any real explanatory or even moral significance in today s world or are they just consolations in the face of events we cannot fully understand His answers lead him to reconsider how Middle Eastern and European history are written and move him to question cherished assumptions about state formation modernization and postmodernism Torture and Modernity is a deeply unsettling book it contains not only graphic verbal passages but an extensive photographic essay yet it is intended to serve as a guide to rethinking current attitudes and reshaping political policies How people are punished necessarily invokes conceptions of what human beings are and what they might become A work such as this offers an understanding of what it means to become modern and it is only when this notion of modernity is made manifest and analyzed that one can firmly grasp the prospects for a world without torture
