The Private Eye:

The Private Eye Bran Nicol, 2013-07-15 From Philip Marlowe and Sam Spade to Jake Gittes private eyes have made for some of the most memorable characters in cinema We often view these detectives as lone wolves who confront and try to make sense of a violent and chaotic modern world Bran Nicol challenges this stereotype in The Private Eye and offers a fresh take on this iconic character and the film noir genre Nicol traces the history of private eye movies from the influential film noirs of the 1940s to 1970s neonoir cinema whose slow and brilliant decline gave way to the fading of detectives into movie mythology today Analyzing a number of classic films including The Maltese Falcon The Big Sleep Chinatown and The Long Goodbye he reveals that while these movies are ostensibly thrillers they are actually occupied by issues of work and love The private eye is not a romantic hero Nicol argues but a figure who investigates the concealments of others at the expense of his own private life Combining a lucid introduction to an underexplored tradition in movie history with a new approach to the detective in film this book casts new light on the private worlds of the private eye The Private Eye Ernest Dudley, 1950

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
