The Privileged Adolescent:

The Privileged Adolescent A.D. Gunn,2012-12-06 ADOLESCENCE is an artificial state created by the demands of complex modern society for further education Youth is prolonged by the requirements of training apprenticeship school college and university and those who are better intellectually endowed than others face a time of further education that may last from at least three to six years after leaving school As such they are privileged by the opportunities they can enjoy and the student who belongs to the educational elite of today can belong to the social elite of tomorrow s world These privileged adolescents however have much need of understanding sympathy and help through the crises of development be they social psychological or environmental in cause because the student of today is the most precious investment for the community s future Whether it be problems of academic wastage stress depression adjustment to personal relationships or the demands of just simply growing up the privileged adolescent has a difficult time in contemporary society If we as parents doctors teachers taxpayers and adults are responsible for making it any more difficult than it ought to be by prejudice lack of understanding or through not offering the right help at the right time then we bear a terrible responsibility Society will suffer for the harm it causes its adolescents and there are many who feel perhaps justifiably that addiction promiscuity suicide depression and neurosis are symptoms of social illness marked out by individual tragedy

Oblivion or Utopia Chiku Malunga,2009-12-08 Oblivion or Utopia the Prospects for Africa explains that most of the problems on the continent stem from the fact that although the continent may be politically independent it is not economically independent Efforts to reverse the continent s continuing underdevelopment have failed to date including trillions of dollars in aid because they have not been consciously aimed at enabling Africa to turn its vast natural resources into wealth which is the only known way of ensuring economic independence Based on a comprehensive exploration of impediments to reach the goal of economic independence required for self definition the book proposes a five step strategy which can enable the continent to turn its natural resources into wealth by 1 Raising awareness and consciousness that Africa is not economically independent yet 2 Creating visions of aspiration 3 Organizing for wealth creation 4 Cultivating a business culture 5 Patronizing own businesses A revolutionary implementation of the five steps the author argues would make utopia triumph over oblivion on the continent of Africa

Styling South Asian Youth Cultures Lipi Begum,Rohit K. Dasgupta,Reina Lewis,2018-07-30 For South Asia fashion and consumption have come to play an increasingly important role in the lives of young people and in the formation of youth cultures Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka have all in related and distinctive ways been producing confident young fashion consumers who are proving to be an important market for fashion This book explores South Asian youth cultures and fashion across the countries of this region and their diasporas from a transnational perspective Through visual and textual analysis of film photography and digital cultures as well as ethnographic fieldwork the expert contributors look at how gender sexuality class the media and faith intersect with and style youth cultures By establishing the heterogeneous nature of South Asia and its youth cultures they also dismantle grand western narratives that tend to understand the region's diverse cultural modernity through the lens of homogeneity     The Bible for Young People: From David to Josiah Henricus Oort,1877     Sermons to young men, by the bishop of London [and others]. Sermons,1891     *Proceedings of the ...
