Reportorio de Los Tiempos Andrés de Li,1999 Fifteenth century almanac reveals life and thought in medieval Spain
Texts in Multiple Versions - Histories of Editions ,2006-01-01 Texts in multiple versions constitute the core problem of textual scholarship For texts from antiquity and the medieval period the many versions may be the result of manuscript transmission requiring editors and readers to discriminate between levels of authority in variant readings produced along the chain of copying For texts of all periods and particularly for more modern authors there may also be multiple authorial versions These are of particular importance for genetic criticism as they offer a window on the author's thinking through the developing work The different contexts in which multiple versions may occur different languages different genres different cultures ranging in this collection from ancient Greek texts to novels by Cervantes and Aub dramatic texts from Portugal and Germany poetry from The Netherlands and Lithuania scientific texts from the 19th century provide further layers of complexity The histories of countries are reflected in the histories of editing In Europe this can be seen particularly in the great period of nation building of the 19th century Essays in this volume survey editorial activity in The Netherlands Belgium and Germany in the nineteenth century concluding that nation building and scholarly editing are twinned As a nation searches for its own identity textual scholarship is pressed into service to find and edit the texts on which to establish that identity The two strands of this volume multiple versions of texts editions and national histories testify to the centrality of textual editing to many fields of research There is material here for literary scholars historians and for readers interested in texts from Ancient Greece to modernist classics

Literature and Art, Voyages and Travels Maggs Bros,1929 Manual of Catalan Linguistics Joan A. Argenter,Jens Lüdtke,2020-04-06 This manual is intended to fill a gap in the area of Romance studies There is no introduction available so far that broadly covers the field of Catalan linguistics neither in Catalan nor in any other language The work deals with the language spoken in Catalonia and Andorra the Balearic Islands the region of Valencia Northern Catalonia and the town of l Alguer in Sardinia Besides introducing the ideologies of language and nation and the history of Catalan linguistics the manual is divided into separate parts embracing the description grammar lexicon variation and varieties and the history of the language since the early medieval period to the present day It also covers its current social and political situation in the new local and global contexts The main emphasis is placed on modern Catalan The manual is designed as a companion for students of Catalan while also introducing specialists of other languages into this field in particular scholars of Romance languages Catalogue Bailey Brothers,1887 Ramon Llull as a Vernacular Writer Lola Badia,Joan Santanach i Suñol,Albert Soler i Llopert,2016 The authors maintain that Llull was an atypical scholar because he enjoyed a form of access to knowledge that differed from the norm and because he organized the production and dissemination of his writings in a creative and unconventional fashion Ramon Llull 1232 1316 mystic missionary philosopher and author of narrative and poetry wrote both in Latin and in the vernacular claiming he had been given a new science to unveil the Truth This book shows why his Latin and vernacular books cannot be read as if they had been written in isolation from one another Llull was an atypical scholar because he enjoyed a form of access to knowledge that differed from the norm and because he organized the production and dissemination of his writings in a creative and unconventional fashion At a time when learned texts and university culture were conveyed for the most part using the vehicle of Latin he wrote a substantial proportion of his theological and scientific works in his maternal Catalan while at the same time he was deeply involved in the circulation of such works in other Romance languages These circumstances do not preclude the fact that a considerable number of the titles comprising his extensive output of more than 260 works were written directly in Latin or that he had various books which were originally conceived in Catalan subsequently translated or adapted into Latin Lola Badia is a professor in the Catalan Philology Department at the University of Barcelona Joan Santanach is Lecturer of Catalan Philology at the University of Barcelona Albert Soler 1963 is Lecturer of Catalan Philology at the University of Barcelona

Foreigners in the Homeland Mario Santana, 2000 Foreigners in the Homeland analyzes the reception of the Latin American Boom novel in Spain It argues in favor of an expanded concept of national literature that is not restricted to the native production of citizens but also takes into consideration the importance and nationalization of foreign cultural products Charting the courses of interliterary relations between Spain and Spanish America the book analyzes the conditions of the literary market during the 1960s and 1970s follows the appropriation and canonization of Latin American authors and texts by readers and writers and examines their impact on the resurgence of regional literatures within Spanish territory

The Catalan Nation and Its People Josep Carner-Ribalta, 1995 The Collection of First Editions of American Authors Formed by the Late Arthur Swann Arthur Swann, 1953 Architecture for Spain's Recovered Democracy Manuel López Segura, 2023-03-30 Historical studies on the involvement of architecture in twentieth century politics have overlooked its contribution to building Spain's democracy This pioneering book seeks to fill that void Between the late 1970s and early 1990s Spain founded representative institutions launched its welfare state and devolved autonomy to its regions The study brings forth the architectural incarnation of that threefold program as it deployed in the Valencian Country a Catalan speaking region on Spain s Mediterranean shores There social democratic authorities mobilized architects planners and graphic artists to devise a newly open public sphere and to recover a local identity that Franco s dictatorship had repressed for decades The research follows the impetus of reform and its contradictions through urban projects designs for cultural amenities and the renovation of governmental and professional bodies Architecture for Spain s Recovered Democracy contributes to current debates on nationalism and the arts the environments of democratic socialism and postmodernism and neoliberalism As a result it widens our understanding of how peripheral regions may yield egalitarian architectures of resistance This book is written for students and researchers in architecture and planning art history spatial politics and Hispanic studies as well as for a general readership interested in inclusive politics in the built environment
