Preston William Slosson

The Chartist Movement:

The Chartist Movement Mark Hovell, 1966 Chartism was a Victorian era working class movement for political reform in Britain between 1838 and 1848 It takes its name from the People's Charter of 1838 The term Chartism is the umbrella name for numerous loosely coordinated local groups often named Working Men's Association articulating grievances in many cities from 1837 Its peak activity came in 1839 1842 and 1848 It began among skilled artisans in small shops such as shoemakers printers and tailors The movement was more aggressive in areas with many distressed handloom workers such as in Lancashire and the Midlands It began as a petition movement which tried to mobilize moral force but soon attracted men who advocated strikes General strikes and physical violence such as Feargus O'Connor and known as physical force chartists Wikipedia History of the Chartist Movement, 1837-1854 Robert George Gammage, 1894 The Chartists Dorothy Thompson, 1984
