The Chicago Guide To Collaborative Ethnography:

The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography Luke Eric Lassiter, 2024-05-31 Collaboration between ethnographers and subjects has long been a product of the close intimate relationships that define ethnographic research But increasingly collaboration is no longer viewed as merely a consequence of fieldwork instead collaboration now preconditions and shapes research design as well as its dissemination As a result ethnographic subjects are shifting from being informants to being consultants The emergence of collaborative ethnography highlights this relationship between consultant and ethnographer moving it to center stage as a calculated part not only of fieldwork but also of the writing process itself The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography presents a historical theoretical and practice oriented road map for this shift from incidental collaboration to a more conscious and explicit collaborative strategy Luke Eric Lassiter charts the history of collaborative ethnography from its earliest implementation to its contemporary emergence in fields such as feminism humanistic anthropology and critical ethnography On this historical and theoretical base Lassiter outlines concrete steps for achieving a more deliberate and overt collaborative practice throughout the processes of fieldwork and writing As a participatory action situated in the ethical commitments between ethnographers and consultants and focused on the co construction of texts collaborative ethnography argues Lassiter is among the most powerful ways to press ethnographic fieldwork and writing into the service of an applied and public scholarship A comprehensive and highly accessible handbook for ethnographers of all stripes The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography will become a fixture in the development of a critical practice of anthropology invaluable to both undergraduates graduate students and faculty alike

Collaborative Ethnography in Business Environments Maryann McCabe, 2016-11-25 In a global and rapidly changing commercial environment businesses increasingly use collaborative ethnographic research to understand what motivates their employees and what their customers value In this volume anthropologists marketing professionals computer scientists and others examine issues challenges and successes of ethnographic cooperation in the corporate world The book argues that constant shifts in the global marketplace require increasing multidisciplinary and multicultural teamwork in consumer research and organizational culture addresses the need of corporate ethnographers to be adept at reading and translating the social constructions of knowledge and power in order to contribute to the team process of engaging research participants clients and stakeholders reveals the essentially dynamic process of collaborative ethnography shows how multifunctional teams design and carry out research communicate findings and implications for organizational objectives and craft strategies to achieve those objectives to increase the vibrancy of economies markets and employment rates worldwide

Transforming Ethnomusicology Volume I Beverly Diamond, Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco, 2021 For decades ethnomusicologists across the world have considered how to affect positive change for the communities they work with Through illuminating case studies and reflections by a diverse array of scholars and practitioners Transforming Ethnomusicology aims to both expand dialogues about social engagement within ethnomusicology and at the same time transform how we understand ethnomusicology as a discipline The first volume of Transforming Ethnomusicology focuses on ethical practice and collaboration examining the power relations inherent in ethnography and offering new strategies for transforming institutions and ethnographic methods These reflections on the broader framework of ethnomusicological practice are complemented by case studies that document activist approaches to the study of music in challenging contexts of poverty discrimination and other unjust systems
