The Chinese Shawl Patricia Wentworth, 2005-09-12 Tanis Lyle was one of those passionate women who always get their own way. Her cousin Laura hated her. Most women did. But men found her irresistible, and she used them mercilessly. So when Tanis was found murdered, there seemed to be any number of suspects on hand. But Miss Silver had her own suspicions.

The Chinese Shawl Patricia Wentworth, 1932 The Chinese Shawl Dora Amy Dillon Turnbull, Dora Amy Elles, Patricia WENTWORTH, 2020-08-31 Dora Amy Elles (15 October 1877 – 28 January 1961) who wrote as Patricia Wentworth was a British crime fiction writer. She was born in Mussoorie, Uttarakhand, India, then the British Raj, and was educated first privately, then at Blackheath High School for Girls in London. Her father was General Edmond Elles. She and her first husband, George F. Dillon, had one daughter. She also became stepmother to Dillon's two sons, one of whom died in the Somme during World War I. After Dillon's death in 1906, she settled in Camberley, Surrey. In 1920, she married Lt Col George Oliver Turnbull. Wentworth wrote a series of 32 crime novels in the classic whodunit style, featuring Miss Maud Silver, a retired governess and teacher who becomes a professional private detective in London, England. Miss Silver works closely with Scotland Yard, especially Inspector Frank Abbott, and is fond of quoting the poet Tennyson. Miss Silver is sometimes compared to Jane Marple, the elderly detective created by Agatha Christie. Miss Silver is well known in the better circles of society and she finds entrée to the troubled households of the upper classes with little difficulty. In most of Miss Silver's cases, there is a young couple whose romance seems ill-fated because of the murder to be solved, but in Miss Silver's competent hands, the case is solved, the young couple are exonerated, and all is right in this very traditional world. Wentworth also wrote 34 books outside that series. She won the Melrose prize in 1910 for

The Miss Silver Mysteries Volume Two Patricia Wentworth, 2018-06-05 The British governess turned sleuth solves three of her most intriguing cases in this timelessly charming series Charlotte MacLeod Retired governess and teacher Maud Silver has found a new calling private detection With her knitting needles and fondness for Tennyson she may seem an unlikely sleuth but Scotland Yard would be lost without her Patricia Wentworth has created a great detective in Miss Silver the little old lady who nobody notices but who in turn notices everything Paula Gosling author of the Jack Stryker Mysteries In the Balance On a train back to London Miss Silver meets a frightened new bride Lisle Jerningham has fled her home after overhearing a seemingly sinister conversation Her husband's first wife died in an apparent accident and the resultant infusion of cash saved his family home Now he's broke again Will he attempt a second convenient mishap The Chinese Shawl Actress Tanis Lyle may lack professional training but her natural charisma seems to hypnotize all who meet her The rising star has just finished filming her first motion picture Unfortunately it will turn out to be her last Who did Tanis fail to charm The answer could lie with a distant cousin and a long standing family feud Miss Silver Deals with Death In wartime London the once grand Vandeleur House has been divided into flats its glorious facade now concealing a nest of intrigue When one inhabitant reports she's being blackmailed by another Miss Silver is brought in to sort out the suspects from the residents which include a woman who lost her fiancé after their ship was struck by a Nazi torpedo and a sleepwalking maid with a curious past
