The Christ We Know:

The Immediacy of God Douglas Vickers,2009-05-13 The confessing church in our time treats lightly the doctrinal deposit of its theological inheritance The clamor of competition for the reconstruction of belief systems has too often neglected older and more secure moorings In a postmodern age that countenances individual belief idiosyncrasies and accords them sanctity the answer to the ordinary man's question What is the gospel is often clouded and confused Against doctrinal uncertainties and insecurities The Immediacy of God brings back into prominence a number of foundational issues related to the doctrines of God and salvation of theology and soteriology In doing so it anchors its thought structure in the basic apologetic presupposition that God is and in the fundamental hermeneutical principle of divine covenantal purpose The originality of Vickers argument lies in its proposal of new perspectives on its chosen subject range and as it becomes necessary for the elucidation of biblical belief its critical response to proposals for new theological paradigms The organizing core of the book's argument is its proposition regarding the immediacy of God in his being his knowledge his will and his actions That core proposition spills its influence to aspects of human salvation On such levels questions are raised that strike to the heart of the meaning of the divinely instituted redemptive process Divine actions within that process are understood to be immediate rather than mediate Redemptive actions of God are immediate in the sense that no mediating causes exist between those actions and their effects and outcomes in the human condition

The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob

Watchman Nee,1993-05-01 The Christian life is based upon the irrevocable promises of God the enjoyment of all that God has prepared for us in Christ and the transformation that results from the loving discipline of the Spirit In The God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Watchman Nee draws upon the experiences of the Old Testament patriarchs and presents their lives as an allegory of the complete Christian experience From our response to God's promises by faith to our ultimate transformation into sons who are conformed to the image of Christ we must pass through the same life experiences of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Like Abraham we have been given the promise of God for the inheritance like Isaac we can enjoy all that God has planned for us in Christ His Son and like Jacob we must experience the discipline of the Holy Spirit for the sake of our growth and transformation
