The Last Longhouse:

The Life of the Longhouse Peter Metcalf, 2010 The remarkable longhouses of Borneo remain mysterious This book describes life within them and puts them in their historical and ethnographic context The Ecology of the Barí Stephen Beckerman, Roberto Lizarralde, 2013-11-01 Inhabiting the rainforest of the southwest Maracaibo Basin split by the border between Colombia and Venezuela the Bar have survived centuries of incursions Anthropologist Roberto Lizarralde began studying the Bar in 1960 when he made the first modern peaceful contact with this previously unreceptive people he was joined by anthropologist Stephen Beckerman in 1970 The Ecology of the Bar showcases the findings of their singular long term study Detailing the Bar's relations with natural and social environments this work presents quantitative subsistence data unmatched elsewhere in anthropological publications The authors lengthy longitudinal fieldwork provided the rare opportunity to study a tribal people before during and after their aboriginal patterns of subsistence and reproduction were eroded by the modern world Of particular interest is the book's exploration of partible paternity the widespread belief in lowland South America that a child can have more than one biological father The study illustrates its quantitative findings with an in depth biographical sketch of the remarkable life of an individual Bar woman and a history of Bar relations with outsiders as well as a description of the rainforest environment that has informed all aspects of Bar history for the past five hundred years Focusing on subsistence defense and reproduction the chapters beautifully capture the Bar's traditional culture and the loss represented by its substantial transformation over the past half century Kelabits' Story the Great

Transition Sagau Batu Bala, 2012-12-20 The book tries to answer the questions Who are the Kelabits Why are they called Kelabits Where do they live When did they come to live there What were their problems What made them what they are today What must they do in order to advance forward The Heart of the Pearl Shell James F. Weiner, 2023-11-15 For the Foi people who live on the edge of the central highlands of Papua New Guinea the flow of pearl shells is the heart of their social life The pearl shell is the exchange item that mediates the creation of their most important sexual and social roles The Heart of the Pearl Shell analyzes a number of myths of the Foi people elegantly bringing together significant ethnographic materials in a way that has important implications for the development of social theory in anthropology and in Melanesian studies Scholars of semiotic symbolic anthropology and of comparative religion will also share the author's interest in the meaning and role of mythology in Foi culture Instead of relying on orthodox methods of Freudian or structuralist interpretation James Weiner assumes there is a dialectical relationship between the images of Foi myth and the images of the Foi's social world He demonstrates how each set of these images is dependent upon the other for its creation This innovative study locates Foi social meaning in the re creation and attempted solution of the moral dilemmas that are crystallized in mythology and other poetic usages This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988 Gudme Palle Østergaard Sørensen, 2022-09-15 Gudme The Iron Age Settlement and Central Halls presents describes and interprets the many finds and structures that have been comprised during the extended excavations at the central parts of the Gudme locality on southeast Funen Denmark Head of excavation Palle stergaard S rensen extracts combines classifies dates and temporalizes the many finds and houses from the excavations Gudmehallerne Gudme III Gudme IV Since the 19th century the Gudme area has been known as one of the richest prehistoric localities in Scandinavia and more than 1 000 roman coins close to 600 fibulas as well as several small mask and animal figurines form part of the Gudme find assemblage From AD 200 to AD 600 the site expanded rapidly and covered as much as one square kilometer comprising up to 50 farmsteads At the individual farms specialized craftsmanship can be found and the debris and tools of gold and silversmiths as well as bronze casting is abundant here bronze fragments often from statues imported from the Roman Empire form a distinct category of finds bearing witness to a flourishing and innovative world of craftsmanship as well as an extensive trade network During this period the unique and monumental halls with the largest being 47 m long and 10 m wide dominated the hilltops east of Gudme lake Just to the south a smaller building accompanied the large hall and had been purposely demolished and rebuilt several times at the exact same spot The unusually large entrances to the two adjoined buildings lead straight from one to the other thus witnessing a duality of buildings that came to define the aristocratic localities throughout Scandinavia in the following 800 years Hence Gudme represents a starting point for a significant type of architectural ideal as well as a first generation of central places The Last Longhouse Anna Goins, 2005 The Past in the Present P. Nas, 2006 The concepts of Indonesian architecture and architecture in Indonesia are both quite difficult to pin down For the architecture of this small country incorporates influences from many important cultures from India China and the Middle East to countries in the West and is therefore extremely multifaceted In fact one might reasonably ask whether a real Indonesian architecture actually exists even with reference to the country s vernacular work which is highly diverse from an ethnic perspective in and of itself The quest for an authentic Indonesian architecture has in fact been the subject of debate among architects there for many years especially in regards to the work has been exported to other countries in particular its former colonizer the Netherlands In fact there is even a name for the hybrid style that originated during that era Indische This very nicely designed collection of illustrated essays which features a special section of pictures and drawings of colonial architecture provides a real sense of the diversity of building in modern day Indonesia while at the same time recognizing that such a perspective cannot be productive without taking history into account With chapters on Modern Indonesian architecture vernacular traditions mosques the effect of the Chinese diaspora hybrid historic contemporary Balinese architecture the colonial period Indische architecture and Art Deco and more this publication provides an amazing overview and a long overdue investigation of Indische work Preface by Aaron
