The Practice of Everyday Life Michel de Certeau, 1984 Repackage of a classic sociology text in which the author develops the idea of resistance to social and economic pressures The Practice of Everyday Life Michel de Certeau, Pierre Mayol, 1998 Volume 1 considers the uses to which social representation and modes of social behavior are put by individuals and groups describing the tactics available to the common man for reclaiming his own autonomy from the all pervasive forces of commerce politics and culture Volume 2 is based on on microhistories that move from the private sphere of dwelling cooking and homemaking to the public the experience of living in a neighborhood Delves into the subtle tactics of resistance and private practices that make living a subversive art The Practice of Everyday Life Michel de Certeau, 1998 Volume 1 considers the uses to which social representation and modes of social behavior are put by individuals and groups describing the tactics available to the common man for reclaiming his own autonomy from the all pervasive forces of commerce politics and culture Volume 2 is based on on microhistories that move from the private sphere of dwelling cooking and homemaking to the public the experience of living in a neighborhood Delves into the subtle tactics of resistance and private practices that make living a subversive art A Manual of the Practice of Medicine Sir Frederick Taylor (bart.), 1891 Religion and Everyday Life and Culture: Religion in the practice of public life Richard D. Hecht, Vincent F. Biondo, 2010 This intriguing three volume set explores the ways in which religion is bound to the practice of daily life and how daily life is bound to religion A Manual of the Practice of Medicine Sir Frederick Taylor, 1898 The Practice of Instruction John William Adamson, 1907 A Manual of the practice of medicine Frederick Taylor, 1890 A treatise on the construction, the history and the practice of the flute Richard Shepherd Rockstro, Georgina M. Rockstro, 1890 William Morris and the Art of Everyday Life Wendy Parkins, 2010 William Morris Victorian socialist designer poet artist and craftsman urged his contemporaries to Have nothing in your houses that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful TM foregrounding his belief in the importance of beautiful practicality in daily domestic life This volume of essays seeks to examine the importance of Morris TM s interest in everyday life for his art literature and politics in his own day and beyond Contributors explore the many aspects of the everyday that informed William Morris TM s work from his utopian socialism to his designs for domestic interiors and in the process show how his insistence on the value of beauty and pleasure in daily life formed the basis of his call for a radical transformation of society As this volume demonstrates William Morris TM s concern with the ordinary concerns and pleasures of daily life remains relevant in the twenty first century Scripture Illustrated by Scenes of Everyday Life in the East , 1886 Gender, Taste, and Material Culture in Britain and North America, 1700-1830 John Styles, Amanda Vickery, 2006 Between 1700 and 1830 men and women in the English speaking territories framing the Atlantic gained unprecedented access to material things The British Atlantic was an empire of goods held together not just by political authority and a common language but by a shared material culture nourished by constant flows of commodities Diets expanded to include exotic luxuries such as tea and sugar the fruits of mercantile and colonial expansion Homes were furnished with novel goods like clocks and earthenware teapots the products of British industrial ingenuity This groundbreaking book compares these developments in Britain and North America bringing together a multi disciplinary group of scholars to consider basic questions about women men and objects in these regions In asking who did the shopping how things were used and why they became the subject of political dispute the essays show the profound significance of everyday objects in the eighteenth century Atlantic world The Practice of Everyday Life Michel de Certeau,1998 "The" English Catalogue of Books ,1896 The Medical Times and Gazette ,1879 Conference Report ,1936 The Practice of Medicine Sir Frederick Taylor (bart.),1914 Ordinary Men Christopher R.
