Syndicated Television Hal Erickson, 2024-10-09 Here is an excellent reference book on first run syndication, the distribution of programs either made exclusively for non-network play or of programs intended for network telecasts but ultimately making their debuts in syndication. Bringing together information not easily found, this work covers the classics such as Sea Hunt, Highway Patrol, The Merv Griffin Show and The Muppet Show, as well as such once popular but now obscure productions as China Smith, Ripcord and The Littlest Hobo. Coverage goes back to 1947 and the book includes a number of series ignored in other works. The first section is an overview of the concept of syndication from its earliest application in the newspaper world to the attempt by Fox Television to become a fourth network. The next four sections each cover ten years of syndication, listing the shows with full background, who produced them and why, who liked them and why, etc., alphabetically by title under the following genres: Adventure, Mystery, Children's, Comedy, Drama, Game Quiz, Informational, Music, Variety, Religious, Sports, Talk, Interview, Travel, Documentary, Westerns, and Women's.

Stephen J.

Cannell Television Productions Jon Abbott, 2009-09-12 The face of 1980s television was shaped by a man who stayed behind the scenes. Stephen Cannell's reluctant white knights put upon private eye James Rockford, World War II fly boys, the Black Sheep Squadron, hapless superhero Ralph Hinckley, fugitive mercenaries, the A Team and maverick cop Hunter traversed the television landscape from the 1970s to the 1990s. Cannell changed the face of the action-adventure genre, updating the crime show format with a hybrid of rebellious morality, juvenile wit, intelligent sarcasm and radical conservatism. This book discusses in detail the programs of the writer-producer and lists every episode of his award-winning productions from the early 1970s to the early 90s. The book features publicity photos and descriptions of unsold pilots.

Topping,1996 Television in Black-and-white America Alan Nadel,2005 La couverture indique Alan Nadel s new book reminds us that most of the images on early TV were decidedly Caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences Television did not invent whiteness for America but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the Cold War years Nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of America During this era prime time TV was dominated by adult Westerns with heroes like The Rebel s Johnny Yuma reincarnating Southern values and Bonanza s Cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that Nadel shows bristled with Cold War messages even as they spoke to the nation s mythology America had become visually reconfigured as a vast Ponderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands
