

The book cover features a photograph of various hosta plants. In the foreground, there is a cluster of hostas with light green leaves and prominent yellow variegation. Behind them, several darker green hostas with broader, more rounded leaves are visible. In the upper left, some small, light-colored flowers are peeking through the foliage. The background is slightly blurred, showing more greenery and a hint of a tree trunk. The title 'The Hosta Handbook' is printed in a large, white, serif font, centered over the upper half of the image. The author's name, 'Mark R. Zilis', is at the bottom in a smaller, white, serif font.
