Jacket Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel, Robert B. Cooter, 2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses. This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available. The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading. Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K-3 and 4-8 classrooms. Chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4-6 and 6-8.

Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom Carol Brennan Jenkins, Deborah Jean Downs White, 2007 If you've experienced the delight and wonderment that children bring to nonfiction read alouds take the next step and invite nonfiction authors into your classroom through author study. Like its fiction counterpart nonfiction author studies engage students deeply and help them interact with texts in multiple ways and Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom shows you how to guide and support these interactions while honoring readers' fascination with the world around them. Drawing on the latest research and the experiences of classroom teachers Carol Brennan Jenkins and Deborah White make the case for studying nonfiction writers and their books with zeal and rigor. They give you a strong rationale for nonfiction author study outlining how and why it's effective and what its principal goals are. Then they turn over the discussion to five teachers who showcase units they developed and implemented in their own classrooms. Each unit investigates a well known and well loved nonfiction author Gail Gibbons The Pumpkin Book, Ann Morris On the Go, Teamwork Play and What Was It Like Grandma Jim Arnosky The All About series Jean Fritz Can't You Make Them Behave King George and George Washington's Mother Sandra Markle Outside and Inside Snakes. Each author study takes you step by step through its key questions, themes and instructional moments providing everything you'll need along the way including worksheets, booklists, biographical information, web based resources, student samples, curriculum maps and links to literacy standards. Author study isn't just for fiction anymore. Get ready to find out why. Read the wisdom of practicing teachers and explore what nonfiction author study can do for you Pick up Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom teach its units and find a fresh way to deepen your readers connection to the captivating world of nonfiction texts Collins Cambridge International Primary English - International Primary English Teacher's Book 4 Catherine Baker,2021-06-07 Collins International Primary English is a six level multi component course for the international market which has been carefully developed to meet the needs of teachers and students This title is endorsed by Cambridge Assessment International Education International Primary English as a Second Language Teacher Guide Stage 4 (Collins Cambridge International Primary English as a Second Language) Jennifer Martin,2021-06-07

Kucer,2008 This groundbreaking collection examines official views of the teaching and learning of reading those endorsed by the National Reading Panel No Child Left Behind and Reading First initiatives and challenges the assumptions on which the views are based Together the contributors offer an alternate vision to currently accepted ideas and practices in reading education What Research Really Says about Teaching and Learning to Read provides historical context for the current reading debates and then examines forms of resistance to existing policies. The contributors with support of NCTE's Commission on Reading synthesize a broad range of research concerning the nature of reading, how it is learned and its development across the grades. They examine specific curricular and instructional strategies for reading development in children and adolescents. They also offer a powerful decision making matrix to help evaluate reading curricula as well as a research based collection of best practices. Recognizing that classrooms are becoming more ethnically, racially and linguistically diverse, this pioneering book addresses the needs of multilingual students and of readers who struggle under current national reading policies. The contributors highlight the transformative power of professional development and celebrate success stories in the era of No Child Left Behind and Reading First.
