The following information is used to issue your student's MAC ADDRESS, which is assigned to a card at the bottom of your mailbox. This information will appear on your online student mailbox service of York County District Office by visiting the online campus (SCD) Web Application module. You may be asked to provide student's first name and surname, enter a MAC ADDRESS if you have the student's device number, and provide your email address. The Web Application will generate a card.

• Try to make the journal the same length as the other papers in the class and use the standard MLA style margins: 1 in. for top & bottom, 2 in. for sides. If you need to get wider margins to write, please speak with your advisor before class.

1. The main-pair connector is in use and the sub-connector is unplugged.
Note: Please refer to the Hardware Connector section of this document to see a diagram of layout of the cable modem and a description of the connector covers used for the following steps.
 2. Disconnect and if the lowest cable in the cable tray is visible, connect the plug end of the lowest cable in the Cable Tray connector to the end of the cable modem. Then, after the connection is made, rearrange them:
 - The cable modem is positioned behind the connector so that it will not pull out of the connector. (If you don't have it available, you can use a small "Connector in Spine".)
 - Alternatively, you may simply let a cable (cable) or a connector (connector) serve as a guide to help you connect the cable modem.
 3. Plug the power cord into the AC IN connector on the back panel of the cable modem and secure connector cover. The cable modem cable modem is shown in the figure below.
 4. For information on connecting the power cord to the power source, see the Power section of the Hardware Connector section of this document.
- Note: When 1 to 3 are completed, you can see the front panel of the cable modem and the power cord is connected to the power source. The power cord is connected to the power source.
