Terracottas In The Allahabad Museum:

Terracottas in the Allahabad Museum Satish Chandra Kala, 1980 Terracottas In The Allahabad Museum S C Kala, 2003-06-01 The book a meticulously researched account of select examples from the rare varied and astounding terracotta collection of the Allahabad Museum makes a major breakthrough in the study of technique and interpretation of subjects related to terracotta art An excellent classification based on typology and provenance has been worked out which should serve as a very useful tool for the future study and analysis of the material The history of terracotta sculptures both as an art form expressing itself at various levels and as an invaluable source for cultural and social evidence not otherwise available has been taken into consideration and in this regard several connections with West Asia and old Europe have been noted tending to confirm the common cultural heritage shared by these regions Written by an eminent authority on Indian art the book has been provided with adequate illustrations supporting the text Early Indian Terracottas Joachim Karl Bautze, 2023-11-27 Early Indian Terracottas considers Northern Indian terracottas from the third century B C to the first century A D It is in these four centuries that in the most literal sense of the word the earth was prepared to form the necessary basis for the Buddhist Brahmanic and Jain iconography for centuries to come This survey introduces mainly hitherto unpublished and complete figurines and plaques rather than fragments as is the case with most other publications on the same or similar subject The mostly complete and well preserved moulded plaques and figurines will provide a fresh and clearer insight into the very refined art of the earlier Indian terracottas which until recently were considered more as pieces of ethnographic interest or folk art rather than art objects in their own right Terracotta Figurines from Kauśāmbī Allahabad (India).
