Sports Finance and Management Jason A. Winfree, Mark S. Rosentraub, Brian M. Mills, Mackenzie Zondlak, 2018-10-10. As the sport business continues to evolve so too does Sport Finance and Management. The first version of this book took an in-depth look at changes in the sport industry including interconnecting financial issues between teams and their associated businesses, the nature of fan loyalty influences and the impact of sponsorship on team revenues. This second edition updates each of these elements, introduces relevant case study examples in new chapters and examines the impact of changes in facility design, media opportunities and league and conference policies on the economic success of teams, the salaries earned by professional players and the finances of collegiate athletics.

Topics in Sports Finance, 2019. Sports economics is a relatively new field of research that is experiencing rapid growth in the economics literature. The importance of the sports industry to economies coupled with the availability of financial and productivity data have made the study of sports economics a useful avenue for exploring research questions that have eluded mainstream economics fields. The main goal of this Special Issue of the International Journal of Financial Studies is to encourage theoretical and applied research in sports economics which is of interest to both academics and practitioners. For this purpose, this Special Issue on Sports Finance invites papers on topics such as, but not limited to: salary determination, ticket pricing, revenue sharing, salary caps, competitive balance, new stadium financing, rival league behavior, determinants of revenue, television and media, tournament prize structures, financial distress in professional sports, financial fair play, financial control of sports clubs, Third Party Ownership, financial efficiency in professional sports, budget constraints and sport performance, financial information of sports ownership of professional sport clubs and Crowdfunding in sports. Papers on both professional and amateur sports are welcome.
