Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen,Oleg Grabar,Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar,Marilyn Jenkins,2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar s original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world

A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture Finbarr Barry Flood,Gulru Necipoglu,2017-06-16 The two volume

Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art. The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field. This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur. Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span. The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art, sacred spaces, palaces, urbanism, ornament, arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods, transregional connectivities, talismans and magic, consumption and networks of portability, museums and collecting, and contemporary art worlds. The essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions. The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question. The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art, architecture, China, Indonesia, Sub Saharan Africa, Sicily, the New World, Americas.

Early Islamic Art, 650-1100 Oleg Grabar, 2023-04-28

Early Islamic Art 650-1100 is the first in a set of four volumes of studies by Oleg Grabar. Between them they bring together more than eighty articles, studies and essays work spanning half a century. Each volume takes a particular section of the topic, the three subsequent volumes being entitled Islamic Visual Culture 1100-1800, Islamic Art and Beyond, and Jerusalem. Reflecting the many incidents of a long academic life they illustrate one scholar's attempt at making order and sense of 1400 years of artistic growth. They deal with architecture, painting, objects, iconography, theories of art aesthetics and ornament and they seek to integrate our knowledge of Islamic art with Islamic culture and history as well as with the global concerns of the History of Art. In addition to the articles selected each volume contains an introduction which describes often in highly personal ways the context in which Grabar's scholarship developed and the people who directed and mentored his efforts. The present volume concentrates primarily on documents provided by archaeology understood in its widest sense and including the study of texts with reference to monuments or to the contexts of these monuments. The articles included represent major contributions to the understanding of the formative centuries of Islamic art focusing on the Umayyad (661-750) and Fatimid (969-1171) dynasties in Greater Syria and in Egypt and on the Mediterranean or Iranian antecedents of early Islamic art. Historical, cultural and religious themes including the role of court ceremonies, the growth of cities and the importance of the Qur'an are introduced to help explain how a new art was formed in the central lands of the Near East and how its language can be retrieved from visual or written sources.

The Timeline

History of Islamic Art and Architecture Nasser D. Khalili, 2005-01-01

The history of Islam stretches from the seventh century to the present and encompasses an area from Spain to Indonesia North Africa to the Steppes The material culture of the Muslim peoples is accordingly richly varied taking in architectural projects on a vast scale and minutely detailed miniature paintings exquisitely patterned silk textiles and bold calligraphy The spectacular format of the Timeline allows the reader to view the magnificent sweep of the art of Islam in a unique way You can see at a glance exactly what was happening in the different arts and countries of Islam within the same period The Timeline is lavishly illustrated throughout with colour photographs many of which are taken from the world renowned Khalili Collection In addition to the Timeline there is a section devoted to the historical dynasties of the Islamic world and a list of Islamic Rulers along with a four page gatefold map which encapsulates the global aspects of Islamic history and culture There then follows an essay on the history of Islamic art and architecture including biographies of leading Muslim craftsmen painters and architects and specific chapters devoted to individual arts including architecture calligraphy Qurans pottery glass jewellery arms armour carpets textiles carvings and seals coins

Architecture of Anxiety, Body Politics and the Formation of Islamic Architecture Heba Mostafa,2024-03-04 Structured as five microhistories c 632 705 this book offers a counternarrative for the formation of Islamic architecture and the Islamic state It adopts a novel periodization informed by moments of historical violence and anxiety around caliphal identities in flux animating histories of the minbar throne and maqsura as a principal nexus for navigating this anxiety It expands outward to re assess the mosque and palace with a focus on the Qubbat al Khadra and the Dar al Imara in Kufa It culminates in a reading of the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem as a site where eschatological anxieties and political survival converge

Art and its global histories Diana Newall,2017-07-07 The reader Art and its global histories represents an invaluable teaching tool offering content ranging from academic essays and excerpts new translations interviews with curators and artists to art criticism The introduction sets out the state of art history today as it undergoes the profound shift of a global turn Particular focus is given to British India which represents a shift from the usual attention paid to Orientalism and French art in this period The sources and debates on this topic have never before been brought together in a satisfactory way and this book will represent a particularly significant and valuable contribution for postgraduate and undergraduate art history teaching

An Analysis of Yasser Tabbaa's The Transformation of Islamic Art During the Sunni Revival Bilal Badat,2018-02-21 Tabbaa s Transformation offers an innovative approach to understanding the profound changes undergone by Islamic art and architecture during the often neglected Medieval Islamic period Examining devices such as calligraphy arabesque muqarnas and stonework Tabbaa argues we propagated in a moment of confrontation and facilitated the re emergence of the Sunni Abbasid caliphate in a more orthodox image Tabbaa offers a timely and thought provoking alternative to conventional essentialist positivist and ethno narrative interpretations of Islamic art
