The Garden End Peter Jones,1977 The Collected Poems of Philip Bourke Marston Philip Bourke Marston,1892

Selected Poems of Edward Thomas Edward Thomas,2011-08-04 When Edward Thomas was killed at the Battle of Arras in 1917 his poems were largely unpublished But in the years since his death his work has come to be cherished for its rare sustained vision of the natural world and as a mirror of England Walter de la Mare This edition drawn from Thomas's manuscripts and typescripts as well as from his published works offers an accessible introduction to this most resonant and relevant of poets In his lifetime he was known and loved by a very loving few Now since his death he is known and loved by very many and yearly this is more so There is in his poems and unassumingly profound sense of permanence A war came and ditched him but his poems stay with no other wounds than those which caused them Dylan Thomas A very fine poet And a poet all in his own right The accent is absolutely his own Robert Frost The one hundred and forty poems he wrote in the last two years of his life are a miracle I can think of no body of work in English that is more mysterious Michael Longley Ten Poems to Last a Lifetime Roger Housden,2007-12-18 The fourth volume in the popular series that began with Ten Poems to Change Your Life Ten Poems to Last a Lifetime focuses on what it means to be truly human In it Roger Housden offers us poems on life and death happiness seeing ourselves in relation to the world and of course the ineffable the things that really matter when the chips are down He describes these passionate poems as bread for the soul and fire for the spirit The poets Housden has chosen are Billy Collins Hayden Carruth Dorianne Laux James Wright Naomi Shihab Nye and Mary Oliver from the United States D H Lawrence and John Keats from England Rainer Maria Rilke from Germany Fleur Adcock from New Zealand and Seng Ts'an from sixth century China And yes that adds up to eleven not ten Housden decided to include a bonus poem for his faithful readers in this the final volume of the series As before Housden's luminous essays provide an elegant and easy passage into the sometimes daunting world of poetry enabling readers to feel that in him they have found a trusted guide and mentor

Select Poems of William Wordsworth William Wordsworth,1889 Fifty Fifty Robyn Marsack,2020-12-21 A Book of the Year 2019 in The Morning Star This is a rare glimpse into the inner workings of a small ambitious press over a period of radical transformation in publishing Each of Carcanet's fifty years is marked by an exchange of letters handwritten typed and now emailed between an author and the editor Beginning in 1969 with the response to an invitation to subscribe to Carcanet for two guineas the book traces Carcanet's progress and offers insight into the nature of literary editing At its heart is the personal relationship of author and editor publisher the conflicts friendships and vicissitudes that occur at the nexus between the work its creator publisher and reader Poets are central but fiction writers translators biographers and critics also contribute to the Carcanet ferment and firmament Fifty Fifty celebrates the writers readers and editor's risks passions and pleasures

Select Poems of Thomas Gray. Edited, with Notes, by William J. Rolfe, Etc Thomas Gray, 1876 Select Poems of Catullus Gaius Valerius Catullus, 1879 The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01 Winner of the C Hugh Holman Award A central figure in twentieth century American literature Robert Penn Warren 1905 1989 was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1985 Although better known for his fiction especially his novel All the King's Men it is mainly his poetry spanning sixty years fifteen volumes of verse and a wide range of styles that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters In this indispensable volume John Burt Warren's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published with the exception of Brother to Dragons including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes lists of emendations and explanatory notes Warren was born and raised in Guthrie Kentucky where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy By 1925 when he graduated from Vanderbilt University he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren's later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process
