Nine's Side of the Story Luke 15:1-7 Experience God's pursuit through the eyes of the Ninety Nine faithful sheep. This beautiful story helps children ages 6-10 understand God's love for the lost and the value of every soul. The Ninety Nine narrate being the obedient flock who stayed close to the Shepherd while one wandered away. They expected praise for their faithfulness but watched amazed as the Shepherd left them in the wilderness to search for the single lost sheep. He searched tirelessly until finding it then carried it home rejoicing more over one recovered than ninety nine who never strayed. Children discover that God pursues the lost with relentless love that heaven celebrates every repentant sinner and that the faithful should share God's heart for the wandering rather than resenting His pursuit of prodigals.
