Spring Of Violence:

Spring of Violence Dell Shannon, 1975-10 Football and Violent Extremism Alberto Testa, Massimiliano Maidano, Hadidža Borović, 2024-11-18 This book examines the ways that nationalist leaders and extremist groups have used football to advance their often violent ideological narratives and to recruit and radicalise young people Drawing on applied ethnographic research with the Ultra fan groups of Bosnia and Herzegovina BiH the book explores the behavioural dynamics of the BiH Ultras both on and outside of the football terraces The book shines important new light on the Ultras ideology organisation and youth recruiting strategies and their connections with other extremist groups In a country and region divided on ethnic and religious lines in which far right and ethno nationalist groups are a visible presence in politics and society this book helps us to better understand why when and how BiH youth choose to join these groups and why when and how these groups participate in violent acts hate speech crime and racist actions The book has important implications for efforts to counter violent extremism across the Western Balkans and beyond This is valuable reading for any researcher advanced student policy maker or practitioner working in sport studies political science criminology development studies security studies or post conflict studies Report on Crime, Pauperism and Benevolence in the United States at the Eleventh Census USA, 1896 Subjectivity in Asian Children's Literature and Film John Stephens, 2012-11-12 Winner of the Children's Literature Association Honor Book Award This volume establishes a dialogue between East and West in children's literature scholarship In all cultures children's literature shows a concern to depict identity and individual development so that character and theme pivot on questions of agency and the circumstances that frame an individual's decisions and capacities to make choices and act upon them Such issues of selfhood fall under the heading subjectivity Attention to the representation of subjectivity in literature enables us to consider how values are formed and changed how emotions are cultivated and how maturation is experienced Because subjectivities emerge in social contexts they vary from place to place This book brings together essays by scholars from several Asian countries Japan India Pakistan Korea Vietnam Taiwan Australia Thailand and The Philippines to address subjectivities in fiction and film within frameworks that include social change multiculturalism post colonialism globalization and glocalization Few scholars of western children's literature have a ready understanding of what subjectivity entails in children's literature and film from Asian countries especially where Buddhist or Confucian thought remains influential This volume will impact scholarship and pedagogy both within the countries represented and in countries with established traditions in teaching and research offering a major contribution to the flow of ideas between different academic and educational cultures Islam after Communism Adeeb Khalid, 2007-01-18 Adeeb Khalid combines insights from the study of both Islam and Soviet history in this sophisticated analysis of the ways that Muslim societies in Central Asia have been transformed by the Soviet presence in the region Arguing that the utopian Bolshevik project of remaking the world featured a sustained assault on Islam that destroyed patterns of Islamic learning and thoroughly de Islamized public life Khalid demonstrates that Islam became synonymous with tradition and was subordinated to powerful ethnonational identities that crystallized during the Soviet period He shows how this legacy endures today and how for the vast majority of the population a return to Islam means the recovery of traditions destroyed under Communism Islam after Communism reasons that the fear of a rampant radical Islam that dominates both Western thought and many of Central Asia s governments should be tempered by an understanding of the politics of antiterrorism which allows governments to justify their own authoritarian policies by casting all opposition as extremist Comparing the secularization of Islam in Central Asia to experiences in Turkey the former Yugoslavia and other secular Muslim states the author lays the groundwork for a nuanced and well informed discussion of the forces at work in this crucial region New Commentaries
