The Worship of Walker Judson Janice Strubbe Wittenberg,2013-10-01 Young Walker Judson has a grand secret He sees light emanating from and surrounding other folks Soul shadows the boy terms them Years later as director of The Living Light Healing Center he meets the hunchback Lauren Finch and straightens her spine She's seduced by his charisma becomes his devout assistant and ultimately transforms into a powerful healer in her own right When all goes awry even as Lauren's faith is challenged even as others abandon Walker she remains steadfast But how far is she willing to go to prove her devotion and what will it take for her to peel off the blinders and trust her own strengths And so is Walker Judson truly a healer gone bad or a saintly soul whose paranormal talents are misunderstood Ultimately you the reader must decide Today's news is rife with stories of physical and emotional abuse on the part of Catholic priests Buddhist monks as well as school teachers and sports coaches Furthermore cults such as the People's Temple at the behest of their leader Jim Jones require followers to commit mass suicide On another vein politicians athletes and entertainers Bill Clinton Anthony Weiner Tiger Woods and Michael Jackson to name a few violate the trust of family and supporters destroying lives in the process So why are tales of manipulation and abuse so rampant among the powerful Then again why are followers so easily swayed that they cast aside common sense and discernment The Worship of Walker Judson an award winning novel explores the misuse of power and the ease with which seekers relinquish it Psychic phenomena cultism mystics and madmen the retelling of the Christ story in the context of the persecuted healer along with the role of personal choice versus karmic destiny are also examined in this novel
