The Frightened Country Alan Renouf, 1979 The Frightened Country Alan Renouf, 1986 East Timor, René Girard and Neocolonial Violence Susan Connelly, 2022-01-13 In a new historical interpretation of the relationship between Australia and East Timor Susan Connelly draws on the mimetic theory of René Girard to show how the East Timorese people were scapegoated by Australian foreign policy during the 20th century Charting key developments in East Timor's history and applying three aspects of Girard's framework the scapegoat texts of persecution and conversion Connelly reveals Australia's mimetic dependence on Indonesia and other nations for security She argues that Australia's complicity in the Indonesian invasion and occupation of East Timor perpetuated the sacrifice of the Timorese people as victims thus calling into question the traditional Australian values of egalitarianism and fairness Connelly also examines the embryonic conversion process apparent in levels of recognition of the innocent victim and of the Australian role in East Timor's suffering as well as the consequent effects on Australian self perception Emphasising Girardian considerations of fear suffering forgiveness and conversion this book offers a fresh perspective on Australian and Timorese relations that in turn sheds light on the origins and operations of human violence
