Transforming the Republic of Letters April Shelford,2007 A multi faceted study of intellectual transformation in early modern Europe as seen through the eyes of a leading French scholar and cleric Pierre Daniel Huet 1630 1721 Early modern Europe s most extensive commonwealth the Republic of Letters could not be found on any map This republic had patriotic citizens but no army it had its own language but no frontiers From its birth during theRenaissance the Republic of Letters long remained a small and close knit elite community linked by international networks of correspondence sharing an erudite neo Latin culture In the late seventeenth century however it confronted fundamental challenges that influenced its transition to the more public inclusive and vernacular discourse of the Enlightenment

Transforming the Republic of Letters is a cultural and intellectual history that chronicles this transition to modernity from the perspective of the internationally renowned scholar Pierre Daniel Huet 1630 1721 Under Shelford s direction Huet guides us into the intensely social intellectual worldof salons scientific academies and literary academies while his articulate critiques illumine a combative world of Cartesians versus anti Cartesians ancients versus moderns Jesuits versus Jansenists and salonni res versus humanist scholars

Transforming the Republic of Letters raises questions of critical importance in Huet s era and our own about defining sharing and controlling access to knowledge
