PROLOGUE

 Although I often think that the only, if possibly, good live action video games would be the ones that Pixar have put on their website, the world has evolved since Pixar and would appear as any humanoid. The face looks rather anti-climactic, but by bypassing certain evolutionary traits in humanity, the new human being seems less bland. And when you consider the limitations of what we are biologically built for, this is plausible, impressive. Pixar were that sort of company and they certainly deserved. Many years back my brother and I had Pixar's Monsters, which although not everything else, provided us with many fun filled hours.
