The Freshman:

The Freshman Christina G. Petersen, 2019-03-27 Before the advent of the teenager in the 1940s and the teenpic in the 1950s The Freshman Taylor and Newmeyer 1925 represented 1920s college youth culture as an exclusive world of leisure to a mass audience Starring popular slapstick comedian Harold Lloyd The Freshman was a hit with audiences for its parody of contemporary conceptions of university life as an orgy of proms and football games becoming the highest grossing comedy feature of the silent era This book examines The Freshman from a number of perspectives with a focus on the social economic and political context that led to the rise of campus culture as a distinct subculture and popular mass culture in 1920s America Lloyd's use of slapstick to represent an embodied youthful middle class masculinity and the film's self reflexive exploration of the conflict between individuality and conformity as an early entry in the youth film genre

Conservative Reformers: The Freshman Republicans in the 104th Congress Nicol C. Rae, 2016-07-01 Nicol Rae's engaging account of the Republican revolutionaries freshman year in Congress persuasively demonstrates that the precepts set forth by Madison in Federalist 10 and 51 are still in force in our remarkably stable political system The 73 Republican freshmen who entered the House of Representatives after the 1994 election were a well organized group with majority status and a commitment to change This book examines the extent to which they were successful in redirecting policy and reforming the institutions of representative government and the extent to which those same institutions moderated and even frustrated efforts to introduce radical rapid indeed revolutionary change Contrasts are drawn both with the role of the Republican freshmen in the Senate and with the power of the President as manifested in the 1995-96 budget battle The book is based on interviews conducted by the author when he was an APSA Congressional Fellow in the offices of Rep George P Radanovich president of the freshman Republican class and Sen Thad Cochran chairman of the Senate Republican Conference
