Budgetary System in Various Countries S. L. Shakdher,1957      The Public Finances of Post-war France Robert Murray Haig,Carl Sumner Shoup,Alexander Werth,Nathalie Molodovsky,1929 Presents a survey of facts in French public life as an important bearing on the economic crisis through which France has passed since World War I France is studied due to its great burdens and more losses suffered than any other countries      France John Edward Courtney Bodley,1900

Memorandum on Public Finance, 1926-1928 League of Nations,1929 Contains reviews of the financial situation of fifteen countries preface      Financing International Organization: The United Nations Budget Process J.David Singer,1961

This is one those rare prefaces in which the author need not attempt to justify or apologize for the addition of another book to an already over burdened field There is certainly no plethora of serious studies on inter national organization in general and almost none dealing with the administrative aspects of such organization More precisely the author is not aware of a single comprehensive treatment of the finances of any international political organization past or present Over the years many former Secretariat members of the League the United Nations and their affiliated agencies have come forth with either memoirs or general commentaries on their organizations And frequently these works have included revealing but brief passages dealing with budg etary questions yet none has dealt with these questions in any detailed or thorough fashion It is unfortunate that this is so Not that the fate of the world rides on the United Nations budget or that matters of peace and war will be determined by the dollars and cents of the Secretary General s estimates Yet questions of real importance to many of the world s citizens are decided in the budgetary struggle Until the policy decisions of the various organs are translated into budget items there is no visiting mission to encourageTogoland s movement toward eventual self govern ment no cease fire observer in the Middle East no rehabilitation com mission in South Korea and no public administration advisor in San tiago
