The 2020 Lent Book from Bloomsbury explores the vivid imagery of the Psalms and the Gospels as a path into scriptural prayer Scripture and especially the Book of Psalms has always formed the substance of the daily prayer of Christian monks and nuns Monastic men and women spend more time among the scriptures each day than in most other activities How do such regular interactions with the texts of the Old and New Testaments help us renew our Christian imaginations how might these reflective encounters enable all of us to discover the wind of the Spirit the fountain of living water and the fire from which God speaks within the printed pages of our Bibles In The Wind the Fountain and the Fire Mark Barrett a Benedictine monk of Worth Abbey offers a Lenten pathway through scripture opening the gateway of sacred imagery as a mode of prayerful reflection For each week of Lent he has selected a different image the Dust the Mountain the Well the Light and the Tomb In these richly imagined biblical symbols we are invited to find keys which can unlock both our experience of scripture and our understanding of our own hearts
Fount of Heaven (Prayers of the Church) Robert Elmer,2022-09-30 You are the fountain of life light and all grace and truth Use this book as a daily guide in your walk with God and it will enrich you in a multitude of ways Michael A G Haykin The hearts of the first Christians beat with praise for Christ The strength of their devotion is remarkable considering the times of uncertainty and persecution in which they lived Despite all of this the early church flourished sustained by the God to whom they prayed Christians today have a lot to learn from the devotional life of the early church In Fount of Heaven a collection of carefully selected prayers from the first six centuries of the church we can pray with our spiritual forefathers Prayers from luminaries such as Clement of Rome Irenaeus and Augustine are arranged by theme to reveal the right prayer for the moment The prayers have been slightly updated to read more easily but they retain their joy and mystery As we turn to the prayers of the first Christians we can return to the foundations of our own faith
