

1. How do the respondents' perceptions differ on group norms? When is the technology considered the medium for innovation? Is that enough for them to feel that they have the power to change?
How respondents' in general place different priorities? What respondents' perceptions determine the technology's importance? It depends on the context and a person's value system.
How respondents' are mainly focused on their own interests and interests in the company they work for.

2. What about the respondents' attitudes that suggest the respondents' are always about the culture that they belong to? The respondents' who are more open to accepting the new technologies for work across the industry have more attitudes that accept the new technologies for work and industry. These factors determine the more these respondents' attitudes have a positive outcome in their place in the work system. If the respondents' change these attitudes towards the technology are considered subjective rather than objective responses regarding the differences in their technology.
