The Margaret Powell Cookery:

The Margaret Powell Cookery Book Margaret Powell, 1972 Margaret Powell's Cookery Book Margaret Powell, 2012-10-30 In the national bestseller Below Stairs Margaret Powell told readers what it was really like to work in the great houses of England. In Margaret Powell's Cookery Book she gives readers a closer look at the world inside the vast kitchens of these great houses. It's an eye opening and mouthwatering snapshot of that world. The upstairs dining room always demanded the best of Continental cuisine and cooking downstairs Margaret Powell obliged. Her cookery book is a firsthand account of the way people cooked and dined in the early twentieth century when houses like those in Upstairs Downstairs and Downton Abbey were fully staffed and running like clockwork. Describing kitchen equipment such as the black ranges that had to be shined daily, the fancy moulds that needed screen covers to keep out the flies and tubs of ice that were used instead of refrigerators she tells readers just how big a job it was to keep the upstairs dining table abundantly filled. Giving away the secrets of the manor she presents more than 500 recipes from the simple to the sophisticated. Divided into chapters such as Hors d'oeuvre, Soups, Fish, Entrees, Roasts and Meat Dishes, Savouries, Puddings and others she shows readers today what it was like to eat well if you were a member of England's upper class. Classic but simple dishes such as Shepherd's Pie and Roast Chicken Stuffed with Herbs alternate with sophisticated fare and long lost recipes like Potatoes à la Florence, Rabbit Pilau, Compote of Snipe, Sardines à la Bombay and Queen Mab Pudding. With her trademark wit and gimlet eye she tells readers what it was like to cook for her betters but she also states one thing proudly: Food is more than just food. I like it to be prepared and cooked well and I like trouble taken over it. Behind every well fed family like the Crawleys of Downton Abbey or the Bellamys of Upstairs Downstairs was a cook like Margaret Powell and now she invites readers everywhere to the feast.

The Downstairs Cookbook Margaret Powell, 2012-10-11 The Downstairs Cookbook offers genuine 1920s recipes from bestselling author Margaret Powell the house maid and cook who shared tales from her years of service in Below Stairs and inspired the original Upstairs Downstairs TV series. Now in this cookery book she offers a collection of sweet and savoury courses that the servants regularly prepared for their masters upstairs accompanied throughout by her heartwarming anecdotes from life in service. The recipes include retro classics such as kedgeree, jugged hare and angels on horseback as well as more adventurous offerings such as lobster souffl and veal quenelles. With separate chapters on pastry and preserves this is Margaret Powell's complete cook's manual for a 1920s household.

Climbing the Stairs Margaret Powell, 2011-10-07 From the grand houses of Brighton to imposing London mansions life as a kitchen maid could be exhausting and demoralising. It's not just being at the beck and call of the people upstairs when even the children of the family can treat you like dirt but having to deal with temperamental cooks, starchy butlers and chauffeurs with a roving eye. Marriage is the only escape but with one evening off a week Margaret has no time to lose. Between Perce the bus conductor who brings his mother on dates and Mr Hailsham the fishmonger who looks and smells a bit like his wares her initial prospects are hardly the stuff of dreams But then she meets Albert a butcher boy turned milkman Could he be the perfect husband And can she make the perfect wife when as she soon discovers years spent serving others don t prepare you for managing your own life Soon Margaret begins to wonder how can someone like her ever improve their station Told with her trademark wit and warmth Climbing the Stairs is a unique sharp eyed tale of a time when the idea of masters and servants began to lose its sway and of a remarkable woman who grasped the opportunities of this brave new world with both hands Margaret Powell was the first person outside my family to introduce me to that world so near and yet seemingly so far away where servants and their employers would live their vividly different lives under one roof Her memories funny and poignant angry and charming haunted me until many years later I made my own attempts to capture those people for the camera I certainly owe her a great debt Julian Fellowes

Below Stairs

Margaret Powell,2011 Arriving at the great houses of 1920s London fifteen year old Margaret s life in service was about to begin As a kitchen maid the lowest of the low she entered an entirely new world one of stoves to be blacked vegetables to be scrubbed mistresses to be appeased and even bootlaces to be ironed Work started at 5 30am and went on until after dark It was a far cry from her childhood on the beaches of Hove where money and food were scarce but warmth and laughter never were Yet from the gentleman with a penchant for stroking the housemaids curlers to raucous tea dances with errand boys to the heartbreaking story of Agnes the pregnant under parlourmaid fired for being seduced by her mistress nephew Margaret s tales of her time in service are told with wit warmth and a sharp eye for the prejudices of her situation Brilliantly evoking the long vanished world of masters and servants Below Stairs is the remarkable true story of an indomitable woman who though her position was lowly never stopped aiming high
