The Civilian Elite of Cairo in the Later Middle Ages Carl F. Petry, 2014-07-14 This pioneer study presents a quantitative analysis of the civilian elite in Mamluk Cairo Using information about 4 631 individuals drawn from two fifteenth century biographical dictionaries Carl Petry explores the geographic origins of the civilian elite the ulama and the distribution of their residences and places of work in Cairo Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Civilian

Elite of Cairo in the Later Middle Ages Carl F. Petry, 2001-01-01 Medieval Islamic Civilization: A-K, index Josef W. Meri, 2006 Publisher description Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today s Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization Islamic Law in Action Kristen Stilt, 2012-01-12 A dynamic account of the practice of Islamic law this book focuses on the actions of a particular legal official the muhtasib whose vast jurisdiction included all public behavior In the cities of Cairo and neighboring Fustat during the Mamluk period 1250 1517 the men who held the position of muhtasib acted as regulators of markets and public spaces generally They traversed their jurisdictions carrying out the duty to command right and forbid wrong and were as much a part of the legal landscape as the better known figures of judge and mufti Taking directions from the rulers the sultan foremost among them they were also guided by legal doctrine as formulated by the jurists combining these two sources of law in one face of authority The daily workings of the law are illuminated by the reports of the muhtasib in the vivid Mamluk era chronicles which often also captured the responses of the individuals who encountered the official The book is organized around actions taken by the muhtasib in the areas of Muslim devotional and pious practices crimes and offenses the management of Christians and Jews market regulation and consumer protection the specific markets for essential bread currency and taxes and public order The case studies presented show that while legal doctrine was clearly relevant to the muhtasib's actions the policy demands of the sultan were also quite significant and rules from both sources of authority intersected with social political economic and personal factors to create full and vibrant scenarios that reveal the practice of Islamic law The Law Applied Peri Bearman, Bernard G. Weiss, Wolfhart

Heinrichs, 2008-01-30 A sea change has taken place in Islamic legal studies This book both reflects and contributes to that change Traditionally scholars in this field have tended to focus on law as a body of rules and doctrines as fiqh This volume is more interested in how the law has been applied to concrete situations It looks at judicial decision making legal responses fatwas customary practices the actions of public inspectors cultural contexts and theological discourses as well as modern legal reform and constitutional development Reflecting the interests of a new academic generation The Law Applied offers an ambitious and textured account of how Islamic law works in practice in the social life of the contemporary world The

Settimana di studio,Simonetta Cavaciocchi,2007 Byzantines and Crusaders in Non-Greek Sources, 1025-1204 Mary Whitby,2007-11 These essays survey the range of historical sources from the peoples who collided with the Byzantine Empire during this period of dramatic upheaval The Empire that had been expanded and consolidated by Basil II d 1025 was to disintegrate in the face of incursions from the north and Muslim east In addition pilgrims and crusaders from the west passed through the

Empire and settled culminating in the capture of Constantinople by the Fourth Crusade in 1204 In order to understand the history of the region during this period one must be aware of the rich source material created by these shifting populations in a wide range of languages and with differing traditions of historical writing The fourteen essays give an overview of the material highlighting any problems the historian may have in dealing with it and provide detailed bibliographical surveys Latin Arabic Jewish Slavonic Georgian Armenian and Syriac sources are all discussed This invaluable reference work offers new approaches for all those working on the meeting of the Christian and Muslim worlds in this period

Cities in the World-System Resat Kasaba, 1991-10-30 The contributors to this collection question the boundaries and limitations that are imposed on the study of cities by urban sociology They do not disagree that during most of their history the regions and peoples of the world have been organized hierarchically and that there are differences that need to be explained But they see the processes and relations that link regions and people together as the main factor that explains these differences It is the differentiation and not the differences per se that constitute this volume's focus and in its respective accounts taking care not to privilege any one region or time period on the basis of its presumed special characteristics Against this background the book is divided into three parts Part one deals with places outside of western Europe and with times that preceded the establishment of the European based capitalist world economy The articles in part two discuss the different aspects of the concept of hegemony and the establishment of domination as these apply to cities in the world system In part three the focus shifts back to extra European zones where the patterns of transformation around cities under the aegis of capitalist world economy are examined This book constitutes an important addition to the literature on cities By approaching cities from a large scale and a long term perspective the contributors develop a historical explanation of some of the different patterns of development that affected particular cities in their interaction with the world economy This historical and holistic perspective represents an improvement over most of urban sociology where cities or aspects of cities are studied in isolation from all contingent and contextual factors This book can be used by scholars graduate and upper division undergraduate students of urban history and sociology
