Nicholas Cook, 1996     Absolute Music and the Construction of Meaning Daniel Chua, 1999-11-25 This book is born out of two contradictions first it explores the making of meaning in a musical form that was made to lose its meaning at the turn of the nineteenth century secondly it is a history of a music that claims to have no history absolute music The book therefore writes against that notion of absolute music which tends to be the paradigm for most musicological and analytical studies It is concerned not so much with what music is but with why and how meaning is constructed in instrumental music and what structures of knowledge need to be in place for such meaning to exist From the thought of Vincenzo Galilei to that of Theodore Adorno Daniel Chua suggests that instrumental music has always been a critical and negative force in modernity even with its nineteenth century apotheosis as absolute music     Film Music: A History James Wierzbicki, 2009-01-21 Film Music A History explains the development of film music by considering large scale aesthetic trends and structural developments alongside socioeconomic technological cultural and philosophical circumstances The book's four large parts are given over to Music and the Silent Film 1894-1927 Music and the Early Sound Film 1895-1933 Music in the Classical Style Hollywood Film 1933-1960 and Film Music in the Post Classic Period 1958-2008 Whereas most treatments of the subject are simply chronicles of great film scores and their composers this book offers a genuine history of film music in terms of societal changes and technological and economic developments within the film industry Instead of celebrating film music masterpieces it deals logically and thoroughly with the complex machine whose smooth running allowed those occasional masterpieces to happen and whose periodic adjustments prompted the large scale twists and turns in film music's path

Music and Belonging Between Revolution and Restoration Naomi Waltham-Smith, 2017 How is music implicated in the politics of belonging Provocatively fusing recent European philosophy with music theory Music and Belonging explores the instrumental music of Haydn Mozart and Beethoven reveals connections between listening and constructions of community and testifies to Classical music's enduring political significance in an age of neoliberal exclusion
