Ludvig Holberg, a Danish Playwright on the European Stage Bent Holm, 2018-07-09 Ludvig Holberg 1684-1754 is the founding father of the art of theatre in the Nordic countries. He was a satirist and university professor who took his main inspirations from the comedies of Moliere and from the commedia dell'arte to create a number of plays that mirrored contemporary costumes and conducts in a both realistic and grotesque way. Due to the psychological and philosophical strength behind the comic mask the plays have been staged and revisited ever since. In the 18th century they were part of the European canon. They should be so now again. This book presents Holberg in a European context as a reformer in the spirit of the Enlightenment even before Goldoni, Diderot and Lessing and at the same time as an exponent of a carnivalesque tradition.

Ludvig Holberg's Comedies Gerald S. Argetsinger, 1983 Often designated The Moliere of the North and The Father of Scandinavian Theatre. Ludvig Holberg through the continued popularity of his comedies has dominated the Danish National Theatre for more than two hundred years. Of Norwegian birth Holberg is claimed by Norway as their own great comic genius. Both the Danish and the Norwegian National Theatres are fronted by statues of Holberg overlooking their entrances. This book presents the first introduction to and analysis of Holberg's thirty three comedies in English and is the first book in any language to explain why they continue to be the most popular comedies in Scandinavia. After introducing Holberg and discussing how and why he could write such lively works Argetsinger divides the plays into six general types: comedies of character, comedies of intrigue, comedies of special public occasions, topical comedies, philosophical comedies and satires of dramatic forms and provides a fully developed example of each type. He then examines those details that make the scripts comic and stageworthy. The essential elements of Holberg's comedy are those of all successful comedy writers: comic situations, business, character and dialogue.
