The Cold War A Re Appraisal:

The Cold War David Evan Trant Luard, 1964      Europe and the End of the Cold War Frédéric Bozo, 2008 This book seeks to reassess the role of Europe in the end of the Cold War and the process of German unification Much of the existing literature on the end of the Cold War has focused primarily on the role of the superpowers and on that of the US in particular This edited volume seeks to re direct the focus towards the role of European actors and the importance of European processes most notably that of integration Written by leading experts in the field and making use of newly available source material the book explores Europe in all its various dimensions bringing to the forefront of historical research previously neglected actors and processes These include key European nations endemic evolutions in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe European integration and the pan European process The volume serves therefore to rediscover the transformation of 1989 90 as a European event deeply influenced by European actors and of great significance for the subsequent evolution of the continent      The Cold War, a Re-appraisal Evan Luard, 1964      The Gruppe 47 Fifty Years on A Re-Appraisal of Its Literary and Political Significance , 2023-12-21 German Monitor founded in 1979 is a series for themed edited volumes on literature culture and politics in the German speaking world since 1945 Our approach is inclusive some volumes focus on single authors political figures or genres other volumes explore themes such as narratives of trauma German left wing terrorism local global narratives and the roles that Germany Austria and Switzerland play in Europe today We welcome proposals for interdisciplinary volumes as well as those with a specifically literary cultural or political focus Many of our contributors are based in German Studies others in disciplines such as Comparative Literature Film Studies Musicology History Museum Studies and Political Science The book series has a system of double peer reviewing We publish volumes in German or English Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals to the publisher at BRILL Christa Stevens Questions about your manuscript and proposals can also be directed to the Editor in Chief Laura Bradley      The Cold War, a Re-appraisal, Edited by Evan Luard Evan Luard, 1964      Reappraisal of Federal Maritime Policy J. Harold DeVeau, 1959      Constructivism, Narrative and Foreign Policy Analysis Christopher S. Browning, 2008 Building on constructivist approaches to international relations this book develops a narrative theory of identity action and foreign policy which is then applied to account for the evolution of Finnish foreign policy The book adopts an innovative approach by showing how foreign policy orientations need to be seen as grounded in overlapping and competing sets of identity narratives that reappear in different forms through history By emphasising the dynamism implicit within identity narratives the book not only challenges traditional rationalist materialist approaches to foreign policy analysis but also the current tendency to depict the story of Finnish foreign policy identity and history as one of a gradual move towards a Western location Rather the book emphasises elements of multiplicity and contingency whilst re establishing foreign policy as a highly political process concerned with power and the right to define reality and national subjectivity      The Cold War D. E. T. Luard, 1964      The Cuban Missile

Crisis Len Scott, R. Gerald Hughes, 2015-04-10 This volume brings together a collection of leading international experts to revisit and review our understanding of the Cuban Missile Crisis via a critical reappraisal of some of the key texts In October 1962 humankind came close to the end of its history The risk of catastrophe is now recognised by many to have been greater than realised by protagonists at the time or scholars subsequently The Cuban missile crisis remains one of the mostly intensely studied moments of world history Understanding is framed and informed by Cold War historiography political science and personal experience written by scholars journalists and surviving officials The emergence of Soviet later Russian and other national narratives has broadened the scope of enquiry while scrutiny of the operational especially military dimensions has challenged assumptions about the risk of nuclear war The Cuban Missile Crisis A Critical Reappraisal brings together world leading scholars from America Britain France Canada and Russia to present critical scrutiny of authoritative accounts and to recast assumptions and interpretations The book aims to provide an essential guide for students of the missile crisis the diplomacy of the Cold War and the dynamics of historical interpretation and reinterpretation Offering original ideas and agendas the contributors seek to provide a new understanding of the secrets and mysteries of the moment when the world went to the brink of Armageddon This book will be of great interest to students of the Cuban missile crisis Cold War Studies nuclear proliferation international history and International Relations in general Strategic Review, 1974 dedicated to the advancement and understanding of those principles and practices military and political which serve the vital security interests of the United States The Cold War Evan Luard, 1964 The Geopolitics of Australia's Regional Relations D. Rumley, 1999-07-31 This is the first book which examines Australia's external relations from a political geographical perspective It stresses above all the changing orientation of these relationships towards the Asia Pacific region It takes a realistic perspective emphasising the internal relationships among environment society economy and politics in a spatial context Audience This volume is of particular interest to political geographers specialists in foreign affairs and international relations but it is also aimed at business people diplomats and general readers Himmat, 1964 The Cold War, a Re-appraisal David Evan Trant Luard, 1964 European integration and Cold War Raffaele D'Agata, 1996 The Cold War. The Cold War A Re Appraisal: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Cold War A Re Appraisal : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
