The Commanders Of Chancellorsville:

The Commanders of Chancellorsville Edward G. Longacre, 2005-07-31 The award winning Civil War historian explores the battle between two strikingly different generals Fighting Joe Hooker and Robert E Lee As equally matched in skill as they were opposite in personality the brash Union Gen Joseph Hooker boasted of a sure defeat of the reserved Gen Robert E Lee I ve got Robert E Lee right where I want him and even God Himself cannot stop me from destroying him boasted Hooker Yet the battle of Chancellorsville stands as Lee s greatest triumph The story of the two generals has never been explored as it is here Fighting Joe Hooker was brilliant but also profane and bombastic and his army so undisciplined that their pursuit of camp followers spawned the modern euphemism for prostitute Robert E Lee equally gifted was known as the definitive devout self controlled Southern gentleman leading an army that was exhausted underfed and outmanned Chancellorsville stands not just as a pivotal battle of the Civil War but as the personal war between two warriors stalking striking and counter striking their way to ultimate victory or defeat Praise for the work of Edward G Longacre a winner of the Fletcher Pratt and Douglas Southall Freeman awards Breezy and informative Longacre remains even handed throughout and maintains a lively pace Publishers Weekly Well researched fast paced Pennsylvania History Chancellorsville. Address of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee Fitzhugh Lee, 1879 Guide to the Battles of Chancellorsville & Fredericksburg Jay Luvaas, Harold W. Jurney USMC, 2015-11-06 Did Fighting Joe Hooker of the Army of the Potomac lose his nerve during the Chancellorsville Campaign of 1863 Perhaps history has failed to recognize Major General Joseph Hooker s true commander s intent for this campaign Hooker s intent was simple maneuver forces to Lee s flank and rear in order to force a withdrawal of Confederate troops from Fredericksburg Hooker had no intention of engaging in a risky confrontation with General Robert E Lee and the Army of Northern Virginia Hooker s approach for planning his spring offensive would focus the Army of Potomac s efforts toward outmaneuvering Lee s Army of Northern Virginia Hooker had put forth the idea of moving on Richmond and Lincoln advised him that his objective was Lee s army and not Richmond Hooker does pursue Lee s army as the main objective and not Richmond as the President had directed but the means that Hooker pursued to that end are misleading Hooker entered what he considered the initial stage of his spring offensive at Chancellorsville thinking that he would first defeat Lee s army by maneuver Prior to Chancellorsville however Hooker was already making preparations for driving to Richmond Hooker had intended to confront Lee with the dilemma of being threatened from all sides Unfortunately Hooker had failed to communicate his intentions for his army's movements of May 1 1863 and confusion ran rampant among his subordinate commanders Almost exclusively Hooker developed the actual details of the plan himself This flaw would result in numerous disconnects in Hooker's plan Hooker's plan would fail due to his own steadfast belief in the ability of his plan to force Lee to withdraw To say that Lee defeated the Army of the Potomac is misleading because Lee did not defeat the army he defeated Hooker as he fought a very effective defensive battle that removed the Federal threat from Virginia due to Hooker's failings as an army commander
