The Christmas House George Skinner,2012-10-16 In 1934 twenty two year old George Skinner was stricken with polio and confined to an iron lung in the polio ward of Los Angeles County General Hospital. Regular visits from his father Albert and the outpouring of support from his neighbors and community kept him going as he struggled to heal. Determined to walk again and recover from this horrible disease he vowed that when he left the hospital he would create something to thank his community and to repay their kindness he would create something called the Christmas House. In the midst of the Great Depression in 1936 those dreams came true. George left the hospital and began building an elaborate outdoor display with his father. Newspapers sent photographers the local American Legion Post donated time and supplies churches provided choirs and contributed food but most of all children and adults came to experience the first house ever decorated with elaborate outdoor holiday displays and to bask in the true spirit of Christmas.
