The Code of Woosters P. G. Wodehouse, 1999-12 The Code of the Woosters, by P.G. Wodehouse Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1939 On Lightness in World Literature B. Scott, 2013-11-07 Despite the apparent ubiquity of light literature and despite the greater cultural prestige it has been afforded in recent decades very little has been written on the adjective that actually defines this category What precisely does it signify and what are some of the key strategies by which the effect of lightness is achieved within literary discourse In this original and engaging study Bede Scott explores the aesthetic quality of lightness as demonstrated by a diverse range of narratives spanning four different centuries and five different countries In each case he focuses on a specific type of lightness whether it be the refined triviality of Sei Shonagon's Pillow Book the ludic tendencies of Joaquim Maria Machado de Assis Posthumous Memoirs of Br's Cubas or the exhilarating and primitive vitality of Voltaire's Candide By bringing together such disparate sources Scott makes a strong case for the universality of this particular aesthetic value while also subjecting its underlying structural features to close critical scrutiny An Analysis of P.G. Wodehouse's Team of Bertie Wooster and Jeeves Richard S. Carlson, 1973 The Post-graduate and Wooster Quarterly, 1891 The Wooster Group and Its Traditions Johan Callens, 2004 This is the first collection of critical essays to appear about the Wooster Group Since the 1970s this groundbreaking New York based performance company has led the way in crystallizing the conditions of contemporary stage practice at the intersection of several cultural and artistic traditions As demonstrated by the assembled critics each of them an authority in the field these traditions extend into the past as well as into the future through the Wooster Group's impact on the latest generation of performance artists The company's consequent institutionalization is posited and challenged in the essays constituting Part I of the collection Part II tackles the work in progress mapping its idiomatic stage vocabulary and providing case studies ranging from Frank Dell's The Temptation of St Antony to To You The Birdie Phedre Part III presents productions by kindred artists such as Elevator Repair Service the Builders Association Cannon Company and Richard Maxwell Lavishly illustrated with photographs this collection should prove invaluable to anyone with an interest in the current theatrical scene and its place in the wider institutional artistic and historical contexts P.G.
