Expanding the Space for Improvisation Pedagogy in Music Guro Gravem Johansen, Kari Holdhus, Christina Larsson, Una MacGlone, 2019-05-31 Expanding the Space for Improvisation Pedagogy in Music is a critical research based anthology exploring improvisation in music pedagogy The book broadens the understanding of the potentials and possibilities for improvisation in a variety of music education contexts and stimulates the development of knowledge and reflection on improvisation The book critically examines the challenges cultural values aims and methods involved in improvisation pedagogy Written by international contributors representing a variety of musical genres and research methodologies it takes a transdisciplinary approach and outlines a way ahead for improvisation pedagogy and research by providing a space for the exchange of knowledge and critique This book will be of great interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of arts education music education improvisation music psychology musicology ethnomusicology artistic research and community music It will also appeal to music educators on all levels in the field of music education and music psychology

Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education Helen Julia Minors, Stefan Östersjö, Gilvano Dalagna, Jorge Salgado Correia, 2024-05-27 Higher Music Performance Education as taught and learned in universities and conservatoires in Europe is undergoing transformation Since the nineteenth century the master apprentice pedagogical model has dominated creating a learning environment that emphasises the development of technical skills rather than critical and creative faculties This book contributes to the renewal of this field by being the first to address the potential of artistic research in developing student centred approaches and greater student autonomy This potential is demonstrated in chapters illustrating artistic research projects that are embedded within higher music education courses across Europe with examples ranging from instrumental tuition and ensemble work to the development of professional employability skills and inclusive practices Bringing together diverse and experienced voices working within Higher Music Education but often also as professional performers this edited collection pairs critical reflection with artistic insight to present new approaches to curricula for teaching interpretation and performance It calls for greater collaboration between Higher Education and professional music institutions to create closer bonds with music industries and thereby improve students career opportunities Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education will appeal to scholars performers teachers but also students whose interests centre on innovative practices in conservatoires and music departments

A Guide To Non-Jazz Improvisation: Banjo Edition

Dick Weissman, Dan Fox, 2010-12-29 The non jazz improvisation series is a concept that germinated in Dick Weissman s mind while he was attending music school He wrote a 15 piece arrangement of the old square dance tune Cripple Creek and wanted the trombone to take a solo as part of the arrangement When the trombonist kept playing a bebop solo that was totally unsuitable for the chart Dick realized that in addition to the many musicians who do not improvise there are even jazz musicians who don t know how to improvise outside the limits of their own stylistic backgrounds This book approaches the five string banjo as a musical instrument freed from the prison of specific musical genres Old time music clawhammer bluegrass and many eclectic adaptations of the banjo are utilized to demonstrate a variety of musical styles A number of the selections are in different tunings All examples are written out in traditional and tablature notation Performance in Theatre and Everyday Life: Cognitive, Neuronal, and Applied Aspects of Acting Corinne Jola, Pil Hansen, 2021-09-30 Novel Approaches for Studying Creativity in Problem-Solving and Artistic Performance Philip Fine, Amory H.
