The Collected Stories Of Caroline Gordon:

The Collected Stories of Caroline Gordon ,1891      The Collected Stories of Caroline Gordon ,1981      The Female Tradition in Southern Literature Carol S. Manning,1993 This collection of critical essays examines the contributions to and influences on literature that have been made by Southern women writers From publisher description      Thy Truth Then Be Thy Dowry Stéphanie Durrans,2014-03-26 This collection of essays provides new insights into the theme of inheritance in American women s writing ranging from Emily Dickinson s appropriation of Shakespeare s legacy to Meredith Sue Willis s exploration of the tension between material inheritance and spiritual heritage in the Appalachian context Using diverse critical and theoretical models the twelve contributors examine women s problematic relationship to inheritance in a variety of historical geographical and personal contexts bringing to the fore a number of strategies of resistance and empowerment that have helped women cope with the burden or the lack of any inheritance through the centuries Grouped into four sections these essays successively investigate women s attempts to grapple with the curse of personal or national inheritance the troubled relationship with the father figure the classic trope of the haunted Gothic house and the plight of more contemporary women writers who have been relegated to the dead zone of American literary inheritance Of crucial importance for all of these writers is the tension between the home and the land as well as a questioning of intertextuality as the starting point for a reconfiguration of the self in its relationship with the past      Three Catholic Writers of the Modern South ,1985      American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion,2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author s biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far      Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,1980-09-01 Biographical sketches of 378 writers associated with the American South are included in this important new reference work Compiled by 172 scholars these summaries many of which are not readily available elsewhere provide in their total effect a brief history of southern literature from colonial times to the present The volume is in part a companion to A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature Louis D Rubin Jr ed a work that has become a standard reference for anyone seriously interested in the literature of the South. With its wealth of essential biographical information on the region's writers both major and minor this new guide will take its place alongside that earlier volume as an invaluable aid to the study of southern writing. Especially useful will be complete listings of the first printings of the books by each writer provided after the respective summaries. Included as contributors of the individual biographical summaries are most of the better known scholars of southern literature plus a number of promising young scholars. The editors each of whom is an outstanding scholar in southern literary studies are Journal of the Short Story in English, 2003

Katherine Anne Porter Joan Givner, 1991 A biography of one of American literature's most enigmatic figures portrays the award winning writer through all the drama, passion, excitement and carefully constructed fiction of her ninety year life

Short Story Writers and Their Work Brad Hooper, 1992 Brad Hooper on the staff of the Booklist magazine brings the reader his insight on short story writers he holds esteem. The brief biographical essays usually no longer than a well developed paragraph focus on over 100 contemporary writers and masters of the past. The accomplished writers highlighted here are from various ethnic groups of both genders and are of interest to a diverse audience. The succinct entry for each author describes writing style, subject matter, settings, common themes and critical opinion on the author's work. Citations are given to one or two examples of the author's best work. Major 20th-century Writers, 1991 Women's Studies Catherine R. Loeb, Susan E. Searing, 1987 Studies in Short Fiction, 1993 American Women Fiction Writers, 1900-1960

Harold Bloom, 1997 Part of an ongoing series covering the texts and lives of the most important women writers of English American Women Fiction Writers 1900-1960 Volume One contains introductory essays by Harold Bloom and provides biographical information, a wide selection of critical excerpts and complete bibliographies of 12 authors. Southern Dogs and Their People Roberta Gamble, 2000 The rich photography of P. S. Davis is paired with quotations from great Southern writers in this tribute to Southerners and their dogs.
