Scotland's Future History Stuart McHardy,2015-04-06 McHardy presents a new approach to history changing our mindset to look at Scotland as the centre of our story Rather than starting from the Mediterranean from the classical Christian bias we have been taught for centuries Rather than being a remote dark land populated by barbaric tribes Perhaps we were the centre of a well organised civilisation around the Orkneys and islands and coasts and rivers with our own priorities community centred locally self sufficient well versed in lore of all kinds Who were are we The great centres of ritual in Orkney Lewis and Kilmartin suggest an indigenous population much more sophisticated in terms of social ritual and communal rule than we have been led to believe In whose interest is it that we accept the classical Christian version of history relayed to us by monks These are some of the questions McHardy addresses in a passionate and accessible style Read and become more Alba centric in terms of what we see as important to research study and understand Historic Scotland Historic Scotland,1994 Scottish History Without the Boring Bits Ian Crofton,2015-05-14 This is the story of Scotland as it s never been told before From the 4th millennium BC when the first Scot was expelled from Eden right up to the 21st century when US intelligence identified a distillery on Islay as a possible threat to world peace Ian Crofton presents a host of little known tales that you won t find in conventional history books Packed with fascinating facts and extraordinary events Scottish History Without the Boring Bits also includes some remarkable personalities such as the duke who ate his own fingers the poet who sought inspiration from a tooth the vampire hunting children of the Gorbals and the MP accused of stealing his ex mistress s knickers Publications of the Scottish History Society Scottish History Society,1887
